175th Annual Convention

THE CHURCH OF THE HOLY TRINITY, PHILADELPHIA

MONDAY, MAY 4, 1959, 4:00 P.M.

The One Hundred Seventy-fifth Annual Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in The Diocese of Pennsylvania assembled at The Church of The Holy Trinity, Philadelphia, on Monday, May 4, 1959, at 4:00 P.M., (D.S.T.) in accordance with the Constitution and the Resolution of the last Convention.

The Bishop of the Diocese presiding, called the Convention to order and opened the session with prayer.

A Quorum being present the Rev. Dr. Charles H. Long was duly elected Secretary and the Rev. Thomas A. Meryweather was appointed Assistant Secretary of the Convention.

The Rev. William Roulston McKean, D.D., chairman, presented the Report of The Committee on the Dispatch of Business which on Motion was adopted as follows:

Your Committee presents herewith its suggested program for the dispatch of business during the Convention.

In order to expedite the order of business, your Committee suggests that all Reports be made by title where feasible, and as an effort is to be made to transact the work of Convention in one full day, that discussion be curtailed as far as possible.

Should the Business of the Convention be not completed at 5:30 P.M. on Tuesday, May 5, 1959, a Recess shall be taken at that hour until 7:45 P.M. Should further time be required, Convention shall meet again on Wednesday, May 6, 1959, at 9:00 A.M.

The Rev. Howard A. Hopkins presented the Report of the Committee on Arrangements which was adopted.

Seats have been found for all Deputies. However, due to an influx of new Parishes and Missions, there is overcrowding in several instances. If you are unable to find space in the seat assigned to you, you are at liberty to take the nearest available seat. Please remember that only authorized Deputies are entitled to seats on the Convention floor. All others must sit in the gallery.

A public address system has been installed and microphones have been placed in the three aisles for use of the Deputies. Please use the nearest microphone when speaking to the Convention.

A buffet luncheon will be served to all Deputies, holding tickets, at 1 P.M. Tuesday in Trinity Memorial Church, 22nd and Spruce Streets. May we remind you again that every year many tickets are requested and not used, and the Diocese sustains a loss of $2.36 for each of these tickets. Please do not order any tickets if they are not to be used. If you have tickets that are not to be used, please return them either to Dr. Long's office or to me.

The Secretary read the Canon of Courtesy as follows:

Clergymen canonically resident in this Diocese but not entitled to vote in the Convention, Clergymen of other Dioceses of this Church, Candidates For Holy Orders in this Church, Wardens of Missions other than those entitled to send Deputies, and all persons holding any office or trust under the Convention, including the Lay Members of the Standing Committee, the Officers of the Eexcutive Council and the Executive Officer of the Episcopal Community Services, though not members, shall be admitted to seats and have a voice in the Convention, but not the right to vote.

On motion it was adopted.

The following communications were received from

THE GENERAL CONVENTION

C. RANKIN BARNES, Secretary of the House of Deputies.
281 Fourth Avenue, New York 10, N.Y.
March 1, 1959.

AMENDENT TO THE BOOK OF COMMON PRAYER PROPOSED AT THE GENERAL CONVENTION OF 1958, AND TO BE FINALLY ACTED UPON AT THE CONVENTION OF 1961

That an amendment to the Book of Common Prayer, as set forth below, was proposed to the General Convention, and by resolve thereof, was directed to be sent to the Ecclesiastical Authority of every Diocese and Missionary District, and to the Secretary of the Convention of every Diocese, and Missionary District, and to the Secretary of the Convention of every Diocese, and of the Convocation of every Missionary District, to be made known to the Diocesan Convention or the Missionary District Convocation at its next meeting.

RESOLVED, That this Convention hereby authorizes the publication of a Book of Propers for the Minor Holy Days, as an alteration of the Book of Common Prayer to be printed separately as a supplement to the Book of Common Prayer, embodying the proposed Propers as contained in the Prayer Book Studies XII of the Standing Liturgical Commission hereto attached; and be it further.

RESOLVED, That this proposed supplement to the Book of Common

Prayer be made known by the Secretary of the General Convention to the several Dioceses and Missionary Districts as an alteration to the Book of Common Prayer, in order that it may be adopted by the next General Convention, in accordance with the provision of Article X of the Constitution, provided, that the said Book may not be used for services of worship in this Church on any Sunday or Holy Day of the year for which the Book of Common Prayer now specifically provides a proper Collect, Epistle and Gospel; and be it further

RESOLVED, That the Standing Liturgical Commission be requested to arrange for the publication of this book.

That amendments to the Constitution, as set forth below, were proposed to the General Convention, and by resolve thereof, were directed to be sent to the Ecclesiastical Authority of every Diocese and Missionary District, and to the Secretary of the Convention of every Diocese, and of the Convocation of every Missionary District, to be made known to the Diocesan Convention or the Missionary District Convocation at its next meeting:

1. Amend the second sentence of Article I, Sec. 2, to read as follows:

"A majority of all Bishops entitled to vote, exclusive of Bishops who have resigned their jurisdiction or positions, shall be necessary to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business."

2. Amend Article I, Sec. 6, by adding at the end thereof a new sentence reading as follows:

"Each Missionary District established by the House of Bishops beyond the territory of the United States and also the Convocation of the American Churches in Europe, shall have the same rights in a vote by orders as are specified for Missionary Districts in Section 4 of this Article."

3. Amend Article II, Sec. 2, by deleting the words "within the United States" in line 6 thereof so that said line shall end with the word "jurisdiction."

4. Amend Article V, Sec. 6, so that the first sentence thereof shall read as follows:

"No new Diocese shall be formed unless it shall contain at least six Parishes and at least six Presbyters who have been for at least one year canonically resident within the bounds of such new Diocese, regularly settled in a Parish or Congregation and qualified to vote for a Bishop."

5. Amend Article X to read as follows:

"The Book of Common Prayer and Administration of the Sacraments and other Rites and Ceremonies of the Church, together with the Psalter or Psalms of David, the Form and Manner of Making, Ordaining, and Consecrating Bishops, Priests, and Deacons, the Form of Consecration of a Church or Chapel, the Office of Institution of Ministers, and Articles of Religion, as now established or hereafter amended by the authority of this Church, shall be in use in all the Dioceses and Missionary Ditsricts, and in the Convocation of the American Churches in Europe of this Church. No alteration thereof or addition thereto shall be made unless the same shall be first proposed in one triennial meeting of the General Convention and by a resolve thereof be sent within six months to the Secretary of the Convention of every Diocese and of the Convocation of every Missionary District and of the Convocation of the American Churches in Europe, at its next meeting, and be adopted by the General Convention at its next succeeding triennial meeting by a majority of all Bishops, excluding retired Bishops not present, of the whole number of Bishops entitled to vote in the House of Bishops, and by a majority of the Clerical and Lay Deputies of all the Diocese entitled to representation in the House of Deputies and all the Missionary Districts, and of the Convocation of the American Churches in Europe, voting by orders, each to have the vote provided for in Article I, Sec. 4.

BE IT RESOLVED; That the 175th Diocesan Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania of the Protestant Episcopal Church tender its congratulations and best wishes for future work to the Church of St. Alban's, Begun as a parochial mission of St. David's, Manayunk on June 26, 1859.

The Rev. Elbert K. St. Claire presented the following resolution which was referred to the Committee on Dispatch of Business:

Whereas it is believed by the Department of Christian Education that a Church camp is invaluable as it provides a unique opportunity and situation in which our enthusiastic and receptive children will find fun, faith, worship and living help for them to meet life's challenges in a Christian manner.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the 175th Diocesan Convention meeting May, 1959, requests the Bishop to appoint a committee to explore the possibility of providing a Church camp for the Diocese of Pennsylvania and report to Executive Council as soon as possible.

The following resolution was introduced by Mr. Joseph Cuza and was referred to the Committee on Dispatch of Business:

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Committee on Constitution and Canons of our Diocese prepare an amendment to the Canons of the Protestant Episcopal Church which would permit in the absence of a Priest, and on the approval of a Diocesan Bishop, the right for a Deacon or a Perpetual Deacon, or a Church Army Captain, or a Qualified Lay Reader to celebrate the service of Holy Communion in our Church, and to present this amendment to the next General Convention.

The following resolution was introduced by the Rev. William V. Ischie and was referred to the Committee on Dispatch of Business:

WHEREAS the 1958 General Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church has moved and passed the following resolution:

"WHEREAS, We believe in the natural dignity and value of every man, of whatever color or race, as created in the image of God and as one for whom Christ died; that discrimination by reason of color or race between men has as its root human sin; that the Church must confess its own sin in this area; and

WHEREAS, We acknowledge that there are no easy answers to the problem created by the effort to apply these convictions to special and local situations, particularly in times of cultural and social change, and that the composite thoughts of Churchmen in conference or convention may or may not be the will of God because we all stand under the judgment of God and not finally under the judgments of fallible men; and also that, despite honest differences of opinion, we are bound together, through our union in Christ and His fellowship of love, to seek God's will; therefore be it resolved, the House of Deputies concurring, that we call first upon our fellow Churchmen by God's grace to cleanse themselves of all spirit of racial discrimination; and then upon all persons, especially the members of our Church, to work together, in charity and forbearance, towards the establishment, without racial discrimination, of full opportunities in fields such as education, housing, employment and public accommodations."

And, WHEREAS, the Department of Christian Social Relations of the Diocese of Pennsylvania has made a recent survey of the institutions related to the Diocese of Pennsylvania and their policies concerning racial discrimination. Be it Resolved, that the Diocese of Pennsylvania in this Convention take all immediate steps to remove all legal and other restrictions that prevent an end to racial discrimination in all organizations and institutions in any way related to the Diocese of Pennsylvania.

The following resolution was introduced by Henry T. Dolan, Esq. and was referred to the Committee on Dipsatch of Business:

WHEREAS, the Church, following the faith of Our Lord Jesus Christ, holds that each individual is sacred as a child of God, and the object of His redemptive love; and,

WHEREAS, to legalize the killing of one such child who is a criminal offender conflicts with this basic Christian concept; and,

WHEREAS, human law, human justice, and human accountability for wrong are at most relative, less than absolute, and in their exercise and determination no human power should make the judgment of human worthlessness and death upon a wrong-doer and,

WHEREAS, the 1958 General Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church, seven Dioceses, one Missionary District, and the Synod of the Eighth Province have all recently adopted resolutions urging the abolition of the death penalty; and,

WHEREAS, eight American States and Hawaii, Austria, Iceland, Denmark, Norway, Sweden, the Netherlands, Portugal, Switzerland, Italy, West Germany, Queensland, Nepal, Travancore and Cambodia have all long since or recently abolished capital punishment; and,

WHEREAS, Great Britain now limits its imposition to a second conviction of murder, Belgium last used it in 1863, and Finland in 1826; and,

WHEREAS, it is the considered judgment of these nations that the best way to inculcate reverence for human life is to refrain from taking it in the name of the law; and,

WHERAS, the assertedly deterrent effect of the death penalty is unsupported by any historical, psychological, or statistical analysis or evidence; and,

WHEREAS, the testimony of prison wardnes is that life termers as a class are model prisoners, and the record of parole boards shows that paroled murderers are the least likely of all parolees to relapse into crime of any kind;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, by this One Hundred Seventy-fifth Annual Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, that the Diocese of Pennsylvania:

1. Affirm the resolution adopted by General Convention opposing capital punishment;
2. Memorialize the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania now in session, urging it forthwith to enact legislation abolishing capital punishment for any offense;
3. Authorize the Department of Christian Social Relations of its Executive Council to speak on behalf of all persons condemned to death in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania or elsewhere to the end that by commutation of such sentence to imprisonment for life, each such person may come under and benefit by the life-long surveillance of the Bureau of Corrections, or other regenerative public authority, in his progress toward rehabilitation.

The following resolution was introduced by the Rev. Peter C. van der Hiel and was referred to the Committee of Dispatch of Business:

RESOLVED: "WHEREAS, the duty of every Christian is to work for the spread of God's Kingdom, and

WHEREAS, there is no diocesan canon relating to the duties of vestrymen, and

WHEREAS, Canon 13 of our national canons specifies only that the Vestry shall be legal representatives of the Parish concerning property and relations with its Clergy,

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that this convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania urge that the Vestry or Bishop's Committee in every parish or mission assist the Rector or Priest-in-Charge in promoting the spiritual and religious work of the Church, particularly evangelism.

But note that this shall not affect the canonical rights of the Rector or Vicar.

AND, BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Bishop be asked to appoint a committee of five clergy and five laity to consider possible changes in diocesan and national canons covering the subject, said committee to make its recommendations to the diocesan convention in 1960.

Bishop Armstrong moved that congratulations be sent to the Diocese of New York on its Anniversary now assembled in Convention. Adopted and Bishop Armstrong was authorized to send a letter of greeting.

She stated that this is the 85th anniversary of women's work in the Diocese. She further stated that a part of the building now occupied by the Auxiliary is being renovated and a special room is being arranged as a memorial to the late Mrs. Francis R. Packard. It is expected that at the coming annual meeting the name of their organization will be changed to "The Episcopal Churchwomen of the Diocese of Pennsylvania." She summarized the financial and educational activities of the Auxiliary.

The Bishop of the Diocese then introdced the Rev. Dr. Albert H. Lucas, Acting Dean of the Philadelphia Divinity School, who spoke briefly about the School and its policies. (Appendix U, page 289)

If any person repelled from the Holy Communion shall allege to the Bishop that injustice has been done, or if, notwithstanding he shall have professed himself ready and willing, in truth and sincerity, to comply with the requisitions expressed in the Rubric in order to be restored to the Holy Communion, his repulsion shall be continued, he may present his complaint in writing to the Bishop, setting forth the grounds thereof, and requesting to be restored to the Holy Communion. Thereupon the Bishop, unless he think fit to restore the communicant from the insufficiency of the cause assigned by the minister, shall nominate two of the clergy and two of the laity, of whom the minister repelling shall select one of the clergymen, and the communicant one of the laymen. It shall be the duty of the two thus chosen to take without delay the evidence in the case, under oath and in writing, of such witnesses as may be produced by either of the parties, and to certify the same to the Bishop, who shall proceed to adjudge the case, unless for his own satisfaction, or for good cause shown by either of the parties interested, he shall desire further evidence. If further evidence be desired it shall be obtained and certified, either by the same commission, or another appointed in the manner above prescribed, as the Bishop may direct. When the evidence is thus procured the Bishop shall adjudge the case, and shall communicate his judgment to the minister repelling, and to the communicant repelled, and the judgment shall be final and conclusive. "Each Organized Mission and Aided Parish of this Diocese, reporting not less than 50 communicants, which has made a Parochial Report and paid its assessment for the Episcopal Fund for the preceding calendar year, may send to the Convention one Lay Deputy, chosen as may be provided for by Canon, who shall have all the rights of parochial Deputies, and in an election or when the vote is by Orders the vote cast for such Mission, or Aided Parish, so represented shall count as one vote in such election or vote by Orders."

Thereupon the Bishop, unless he think fit to restore the communicant from the insufficiency of the cause assigned by the minister, shall nominate two of the clergy and two of the laity, of whom the minister repelling shall select one of the clergymen, and the communicant one of the laymen. It shall be the duty of the two thus chosen to take without delay the evidence in the case, under oath and in writing, of such witnesses as may be produced by either of the parties, and to certify the same to the Bishop, who shall proceed to adjudge the case, unless for his own satisfaction, or for good cause shown by either of the parties interested, he shall desire further evidence. If further evidence be desired it shall be obtained and certified, either by the same commission, or another appointed in the manner above prescribed, as the Bishop may direct. When the evidence is thus procured the Bishop shall adjudge the case, and shall communicate his judgment to the minister repelling, and to the communicant repelled, and the judgment shall be final and conclusive. In case his judgment shall direct a further continuance of the repulsion, it shall nevertheless be subject to all the conditions and provisions of the Rubric.

FOR THE DEPARTED

May the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace, and may light perpetual shine upon them. Amen.

THE COMMUNION OF SAINTS

O Eternal Lord God, who holdest all souls in life, vouchsafe, we beeseech thee, to thy whole Church in paradise and on earth, thy light and thy peace; and grant that, following the good examples of those who have served thee here and are now at rest, we may at the last enter with them into thine unending joy; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The God of peace, who brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus Christ, the great Shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant, make us perfect in every good work to do his will, working in us that which is well pleasing in his sight; through Jesus Christ, to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

Since the last Convention, I have attended the Lambeth Conference in London. One of the things that impressed me very much at the Conference was to see the work of the Church throughout the world against various backgrounds. It made me realize more than ever how fortunate we are here in America. One of the fraternal delegates to the Conference during the first week was Bishop Dibelius, a Lutheran Bishop in charge of their work in both East and West Germany. Imagine the difficulty that he labors under in trying to carry on the work of the Church in East Germany! Several of the Anglican Bishops present at the Lambeth Conference were also having great difficulty in carrying on their work under the government regulations in the places where they were. Here in America, we are free to carry on the work of the Church without any interference from the outside. Our great danger here is from within—our own complacency and smugness. In thinking of the Church in various parts of the world, I realize anew that the worth of a parish can never be measured in figures. We can quote statistics and miss completely the reality of the Church's success or failure. One parish may have a large communicant membership, a substantial budget and a handsome endowment, while another parish might have a much smaller membership, a much smaller budget and no endowment, and yet be worth twice as much in God's sight. All of us should be asking the question, "What is the goal of our parish—what is its purpose?"

We are living in a changing world. I have no question about the survival of the universal Christian Church, but it is simply a matter of history that a particular Church can die. The duty of the Church is to be the "light of the world" and to shine in the dark places of the world's life. When an electric bulb loses its power to shine, we throw it away. So a particular Church can become insipid and worthless. All of our parishes should be constantly renewing their life and their sense of mission.

I would like to call special attention to the fact that the Memorial Chapel of the Holy Communion, 27th and Wharton Streets, has agreed to reimburse (if necessary) what loss in pay a person might sustain as a Chapel Delegate to the Diocesan Convention. This was done in order to enable the Chapel to get the best possible representative.

This year the Episcopal Church is celebrating the 175th Anniversary of our organization as the Diocese of Pennsylvania. As bishop of this great diocese, I would echo the words of the Apostle Paul, when speaking of his work at Ephesus he said, "A great opportunity lies open to me and strong forces oppose me." (I Corinthians 16:9)

I should like to take a three way look at the Church here in Eastern Pennsylvania—a look at the past in appreciation, a look at the present opportunity, and a look at the possibility of the future.

When we take a look at the past, we turn naturally to think of the great work done by William White, the first Bishop of Pennsylvania. Bishop White was born in 1747 and at the age of seven entered the English School of the College of Philadelphia, now the University of Pennsylvania. At the age of fourteen he entered the College proper and graduated when he was eighteen. He pursued his theological studies under several clergymen and went to England to be ordained. In 1772 he returned to America and was chosen Assistant Minister at Christ Church, the mother church of the diocese. From the very first he displayed those qualities of leadership which were to make him one of the most influential figures in the Church and city—indeed in the nation. In addition to being the rector of the United Parishes of Christ Church, St. Peter's and St. James's he became, in 1787, the first Bishop of the Diocese which, at that time, comprised the whole state. When one considers that Bishop White lived in the horse and buggy age, his accomplishments seem remarkable. He was a conscientious parish priest, a fruitful scholar and leader of many charitable endeavors. He served as Chaplain of the Continental Congress and later held a similar position with the Federal Congress during the years that our national government was located at Philadelphia. He was a life-long member, and for many years a Vice-President of the American Philosophical Society; a trustee of the College of Philadelphia for sixty-one years. He was first President of the Philadelphia Dispensary, the Prison Reform Society, the Overbrook School for the Blind, the White-Williams Foundation, the Philadelphia Bible Society, which incidentally was the first such society in the country. He was also the Founder of the Episcopal Academy. Travelling by Conestoga wagon, he visited parishes and missions throughout Pennsylvania. At times, his itinerary took six weeks. Bishop White was largely instrumental in laying the foundations for the work of the Episcopal Church in this state.

Bishop Alonzo Potter, who served from 1845 to 1865 was a capable organizer and constructive builder. He founded the Episcopal Hospital in 1852 and the Philadelphia Divinity School in 1857. During the twenty years of his Episcopate, over a hundred new churches were started, the number of clergy increased forty per cent; communicants fifty per cent; and Sunday School scholars seventy-five per cent.

Bishop Potter was succeeded by Bishop Stevens, who did an aggressive work for twenty years. He established what is now known as Episcopal Community Services. This is the organization through which the Episcopal Church seeks to serve all those in need. All Saints' Hospital in Chestnut Hill is one of the institutions so efficiently operated by this organization. The Chaplains visit regularly in the various hospitals; other Chaplains are assigned to our prisons, other members of the staff take care of children committed to them by the courts. An extensive work is carried on for the blind. A family counselling service is maintained. In its eighty-nine years of service to the community, the Episcopal Community Services has fulfilled the need which Bishop Stevens envisaged.

Bishop Stevens was followed by Bishop Whitaker who had been Missionary Bishop of Nevada for seventeen years when he came to Pennsylvania. Bishop Whitaker is still remembered with love and affection by many of the older people in the diocese. Many fine institutions such as the House of Rest in Germantown, the Smith Home for Convalescents in Oakbourne, the Galilee Mission, the Leamy Home in Mt Airy, St. Martha's House in South Philadelphia, were founded during Bishop Whitaker's Episcopate.

Bishop Whitaker was followed by Bishop Mackay-Smith, who was greatly interested in starting new missions. His successor, Bishop Rhinelander was likewise interested in building new churches and during his Episcopate thirty-one new churches were started. He was succeeded by Bishop Garland who had considerable business experience before becoming a clergyman. A Capital Fund Campaign, under Bishop Garland's leadership raised a considerable sum for new buildings at the Divinity School and for new sites for churches. He was succeeded by Bishop Taitt. Bishop Taitt had been rector of St. Paul's Church, Chester for thirty-five years and was sixty-seven years old when he began his Episcopate. He had lived all of his life in or near Philadelphia and was one of the most single-hearted men whom I have known. I was elected his Assistant in 1942 and I soon learned that his one consuming passion was the welfare of the Church in this area.

As we celebrate the 175th Anniversary of the Diocese, I give thanks for what the bishops, clergy and people of the diocese have done in our Lord's name. They have indeed bequeathed to us a noble heritage.

When we turn to look at the present, we realize that we are living under completely different conditions from those which existed in Bishop White's time. Within this century alone there has been more change in thought, methods of communication and transportation than in the previous thousand years. It is not uncommon to hear 1914 referred to as the year in which our world came to an end. This being so, we must be eager to understand the doubts, yearnings and aspirations of men today. We must realize that we are living in a changing world. I am astonished at how much the city of Philadelphia has changed in the seventeen years that I have been privileged to be the bishop of the Episcopal Church in this area. We need constantly to revise our program to meet the situation as it exists in 1959, not as it was in 1784. New communities are developing overnight. We must see to it that the Church is located properly in these areas. Parishes which were once in residential areas, but are now in business districts, must move or else revise their programs. This, some of the inner-city parishes are now doing splendidly.

Finally, we must take a clear look to the future, not in pagan fear, but in Christian confidence. Strong forces oppose us, but these forces come from within, not from without. We do not live in a communistic country which is determined to destroy the Christian Church. An East German pastor wrote to a friend in the West — "The effect of your letter gives us courage to read the Bible, to preach, to witness and to make free decisions." We live in a country where the Church is free to extend the kingdom of Christ. Our enemies are our own complacency, smugness and indifference. I pray that the Church — all Churches — may spend the years ahead in a courageous and outreaching witness to the love and power of Christ. We are free to labor that the affairs of the world may be conducted, not by the whim of man, but according to the eternal purpose of God as revealed in Jesus Christ our Lord. We can work and pray for the nations of the world to become the Kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. It is the only world great enough for God's children to live in.

I end with our 175th Anniversary prayer:

Almighty God, our Heavenly Father, who are the giver of every good and perfect gift, we thank thee for the loyalty and devotion of the bishops, clergy and laity who have labored during the one hundred and seventy-five years of our diocese. Make us worthy of our rich heritage and glad to extend thy work, so that all the people of this area may learn to know thy love and to share with us the joy that comes through our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

(1) St. Martin's Church, Radnor, to place a mortgage on its Rectory in order to make a down payment of $9,000 on the purchase of 8½ acres contiguous to the principle church buildings.

(2) St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, West Vincent, to sell its Rectory and to increase the mortgage on the church property from $27,000 to $42,000 to build a new Rectory, utilizing therefor the proceeds of the sale, the mortgage proceeds, and $4,000 held by the Church Foundation for the account of the Church.

(3) St. Peter's Church, Glenside, to place a construction loan of $130,000 and a permanent mortgage of $60,000 on its buildings and property.

(4) Memorial Church of the Good Shepherd, Germantown, to place a mortgage of $25,000 on the property 3820 The Oak Road, Philadelphia, was approved.

(5) St. Aidan's Church, Germantown, to execute judgment notes totalling $23,500, the proceeds to be applied to the purchase of a Rectory at 10 Ryers Avenue, Cheltenham.

(6) Church of the Holy Apostles, Penn Wynne, to mortgage its property in an amount not to exceed $75,000 to finance the erection of its church.

(7) Church of the Good Shepherd, Rosemont, to place a mortgage in an amount not to exceed $10,000 on 1111 County Line Road, Rosemont, to finance the balance of the purchase price of the property.

(8) St. Peter's Church, Broomall, to sell its property at 2611 Franklin Avenue, Marple Township, Broomall, and to mortgage premises 71 Lindbergh Avenue, Marple Township, Broomall, in an amount not to exceed $8,000.

(9) Church of the Advent, Kennett Square, to sell its former Church, Parish House, Rectory and garage for the sum of $50,000.

The Committee considered the application of St. Andrew's Church, a Diocesan Mission, to have the Diocese guarantee its mortgage. The Committee believed the Diocese had no such power and referred the question to the Executive Council.

The application of St. Andrew's in-the-Field, Somerton, for authority to borrow $38,000 to finance an addition to its present church was approved in principle. As the proposed indebtedness was to be unsecured, the matter was considered within the province of the Executive Council under Diocesan Canon XVI.

The Committee considered the devise to the Diocese under the Will of Ada Ball of premises 26 North Linden Avenue, Aldan, as a home for priests whom the Bishop shall deem worthy and who "shall be aged, infirm, disabled, or possessed of limited means." It was felt the premises were not suitable for the purpose; the sale was approved; and the proceeds were to be held as determined by the Trustee under the Will and the Church Foundation until a conflicting claim to the proceeds was decided in Court.

The Committee, at the request of the Bishop, advised the Church Foundation regarding the disposition of the real estate and personal effects of Mrs. Nunns which were left to the Church Foundation by the terms of her Will.

The property bequeathed to the Diocese under the Will of Sophia DuPont Ford was sold for $85,000 and the proceeds were placed in the Episcopal Residence Fund of the Church Foundation.

The application of St. Paul's Mission, Levittown, to become a Parish, was approved.

The portrait of Bishop Hart by Roy F. Spreter was commissioned and accepted.

Three applications of Perpetual Deacons were received during the course of the year for ordination to the Priesthood. Each requested waiver of one year's course of instruction at a seminary which had been previously stipulated by the Committee as a condition to the ordination to the Priesthood. The Committee believes that while the condition may be waived in certain exceptional instances, dependent upon individual circumstances, the requirement is basically sound.

In one instance the Committee recommended to the Bishop an application of a Perpetual Deacon to study at the Divinity School for a year, then to return to his business, with ordination to the Priesthood four years later, assuming the fulfillment of the canonical requirements.

The Committee advised the Bishop, upon his request for advice, that it would not recommend a postulant for the Perpetual Diaconate at the age of 76.

Respectfully submitted,

TOWNSEND MUNSON, Secretary

APPENDIX G

REPORT OF THE TREASURER OF THE DIOCESE OF PENNSYLVANIA FOR 1958

The report of the Treasurer of the Diocese of Pennsylvania is submitted herewith. The figures are in greater detail than the audit prepared from the diocesan books of account and records by Charles S. Rockey & Co., a copy of which will be available for examination at the Church House.

Once again the generous and sacrificial response of parishes and missions enabled the diocese to close a satisfactory financial year. Our missionary budget for 1958 was, in round numbers, $547,000, approximately $5,000 greater than in 1957. To meet this, the proportionate shares of (a) 87 churches and missions were paid in full, (b) 81 churches and missions overpaid $16,300, (c) 25 churches and missions underpaid $11,300. Since the close of books on January 12, 1959, $1,780 has been received against this deficiency.

At the end of the year, five parishes failed to meet their assessments. Since that time, two have paid. This is not as good a record as in 1957.

The Diocesan Campaign for Capital Funds collected $165,558.11 during the year, of which $65,810.69 was remitted to the Philadelphia Divinity School and $99,216.03 to the diocese. From funds thus accumulated, an appropriation of $110,000 has been made to complete St. Anne's, Willow Grove.

Out of accumulated prior missionary givings, the diocese was able to advance $18,000 to Trinity Mission, Gulph Mills, authorize $22,000 for the purchase of a new site for Christ Church, Eddington, and loan Good Shepherd Mission, Hilltown, $21,500 for the acquisition of land. St. Paul, Levittown, has made a further payment of $10,000 on prior advances. This is encouraging.

Special mention should be made of the generous gift by the Household Finance Corporation of a large quantity of office furniture and fixtures. This valuable addition to our plant was secured through the interest of Mr. E. H. Biel of St. Giles, Upper Darby, and has enabled the diocese to modernize its office equipment and store its records in safe fashion.

The officials of the diocese charged with the responsibility for its finances are grateful for the support given by the parishes and missions, fully realizing that the moneys received represent a willing and dedicated response from clergy and laity. Our work also could not have been accomplished without the consistently devoted and intelligent staff at the Church House, to whom our appreciation is here recorded.

FREDERICK R. DRAYTON, Treasurer

EDWARD M. MANN, Ass't Treasurer

DEPARTMENT OF FINANCE AND PROPERTY

REPORT OF THE DEPARTMENT OF FINANCE

The Department of Finance met bi-monthly except during the summer of 1958 and gave constant thought and study to the many financial problems confronting the Diocese throughout the year.

The Department of Property is a sub-department under Finance. The Report is separate.

The Committee on Financial Safeguards, Mr. Donald A. Williams, Chairman, a sub-committee of the Department of Finance, meets at the call of the Chair.

The Department notes with pleasure that all bills of the Diocese and its Expectation to the National Council for 1958 have been paid in full. The Diocese had accepted the assigned by the National Council.

The Treasurer's Report is most gratifying showing the breakdown of the "Givings." Mr. Drayton, Treasurer, and Mr. Mann, Assistant Treasurer, give personal interest to the Finance of the Diocese and are helpful in the discussions which take place at the meetings of the Department.

The Chairman expresses his appreciation to the officers of the Diocese and the members of the Department for their splendid cooperation during the past year.

COMMITTEES ON FINANCIAL SAFEGUARDS

NO REPORT

REPORT OF THE PROPERTY DEPARTMENT 1958

Christ Church, Eddington—We visited the property in connection with the extension of the Delaware Expressway and attended a hearing at Edgely Fire Hall where the officials of the State Highway described the procedure for the taking of properties and the methods of appraisal for damages. Next, we met with the Strategy Committee of the Germantown Convocation to decide on the new location for our plant. We then negotiated the purchase of approximately 3½ acres on Street Road in collaboration with the Church Foundation. Finally we went over the property with Mr. Thompson, one of our Architects Committee, and planned the possible locations of the future buildings.

St. Paul's, Levittown—Our Committee of Architects approved the plans for the new Parish House and we also checked the building contract.

All Saints', Fallsington—We inspected the Parish House in connection with a drainage problem and talked with the Architect about correcting it.

Christ Church, Hulmeville—We inspected the improvements to the church with the Vicar.

Strafford—We examined and approved a site of about 3 acres at the S. E. corner of West Valley Road and Pugh Road, as the location of a future Mission or church and then assisted the Church Foundation in purchasing the land.

Good Shepherd, Hilltown—We inspected the Boyle property of 15 acres and house adjoining the Mission and later had it appraised as a guide for the Diocese and the Church Foundation in the purchase of the property.

St. Anne's, Willow Grove—Our Architects Committee approved the plans for the new church and later discussed the building contract with the Architect and the Church Foundation.

Church of the Advocate—We inspected the Heating Plant with Mr. Nicolls, one of our Engineers, and collaborated with Mr. Bole, Financial Secretary, in the drawing of the contract for the repairs which Mr. Nicolls recommended.

Mackay-Smith Memorial House—We had the southern boundary line of the lot surveyed to check against a possible trespass on the property by the builder next door, and arranged for some improvements to the residence for Bishop Armstrong.

Respectfully submitted,

RONALD J. MCCARTHY,

Chairman

REPORT OF
THE DEPARTMENT OF COMMUNICATIONS

The functions of the new Department of Communications are as follows:

1. To edit and publish the Church News.
2. To provide the Bishop and the Diocese with adequate publicity through the local press.
3. To work closely with the clergy, seeking constantly to find ways and means to supplement their effort and assist them in reaching their objectives.
4. To work closely with existing organizations in an advisory and consulting capacity; to help them think through, shape and put into effect sound working programs and provide publicity for the same.
5. To develop a Speakers' Bureau composed of specialists in the various fields of the church's work and in addition, to encourage lay organizations to develop qualified representatives to speak in laymen's language on the program of the church's activities in this Diocese.
6. To use the mass media of radio and television whenever possible and practicable to further the church's program.
7. To set up an audio-visual library.

I. The Church News is the Number One Communication Arm of the Diocese and, as such, it has received the greatest amount of time and consideration. The results have been encouraging but as yet not completely satisfying. At the time of this writing the circulation of the News has increased 50%. If our present rate of progress continues, by the time this article is read, it will have increased 100%. One of the biggest problems has been to interpret to the clergy the purpose of the News. Let me emphasize again, as I have in the past—the whole purpose of the "Church News" is to supplement the work of the clergy; to make their job more effective. With that end in view, published material is carefully analyzed by asking this question, "Will this article, this story, this statement pave the way for and help to make more successful the personal relationships that take place within the parish." It might be said that we are trying to prepare the soil for the harvesting of the crops.

We must recognize that the Church News will never be completely successful until it reaches every family within the Diocese. Certain members of the clergy are willing for their parishioners to receive the News, but only if and when these parishioners express an interest in it and a willingness to pay a dollar to purchase it. They seem to forget that the people who need the News the most are within the group who might be called "superficial" Christians. They have probably never heard of the Church News and if they have, they have not reached the point in their spiritual development where they are willing to pay anything for religious literature. In the field of business, these people would be considered to be the good, fair and poor prospects, who must be informed in regard to what the church is doing, as well as the things that need to be done. These people require information, education, stimulation and inspiration to prepare them for a good pastoral relationship.

When the Church News is not used to do missionary work for the Clergy, the Clergy is failing to take advantage of the very tool which has been designed by the Department of Communications to reach the unchurched and the semi-churched. The cost of reaching this group amounts to but 50¢ per parish family. In spite of this there are still some of the Clergy who are not willing to spend this amount of money for this type of missionary effort. Business and philanthropic institutions realize the need of reaching their entire market. It is equally essential that the church do likewise, through a planned communication medium.

A study was recently made by the National Church to determine the percentage of a church's budget that should be spent for publicity purposes. The experts who made the study came up with a figure of 5%. It is estimated that every church could underwrite the Church News for every parish family for approximately one-fifth of this amount or 1% of its budget. The church must recognize that good communications is good business; that it pays off—yes, even in increased income to the parish. It should never be considered an expense—it is a sound investment.

II. The department has worked closely with the Religious Editor of the Evening Bulletin, who is one of its members. During the coming year, it plans to establish much closer relationship with the other Philadelphia papers and especially with the large chain of neighborhood papers.

III. The department has developed and is continuing to develop helpful material to aid the Clergy in setting up their own Department of Communications. A number of conferences have been held to discuss individual Clergy problems within the communications field.

IV. The department has worked closely with the General Division of Laymen's Work; the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, and the Youth Groups of the Diocese to assist them in shaping their policies and to provide for essential publicity.

V. The Director is always available for speaking engagements and has averaged one engagement per week during his term of office. With the cooperation of the Speaker's Bureau of the Woman's Auxiliary, he has been able to fill all requests that have been received for speakers, by the department.

VI. The department has been in close contact with the Philadelphia Radio and Television Stations as well as the Council of Churches in an effort to obtain as much free time on the air as is available.

VII. The department has become greatly interested in the potentials which lie within the field of Audio-Visual presentations. Sources of material are being investigated and a number of the Clergy who have used this type of material have been contacted to obtain first-hand information in regard to the source of supply and the effectiveness of its use.

Respectfully submitted,

ROBERT N. D. ARNDT,

Chairman

DEPARTMENT OF MISSIONS AND CHURCH EXTENSION

REPORT OF THE DEPARTMENT OF MISSIONS

In 1958 Trinity Church, Gulph Mills, was completed and dedicated, and the new Parish House at Levittown was substantially completed. Money was set aside for the building of a new church at Willow Grove, and land was acquired as a location for Redemption to move from 56th and Market Streets in Philadelphia, to Southampton. There the Rev. Mr. Holloway and laymen from Trinity Church, Oxford, had organized a substantial congregation worshipping in a school auditorium. The new church will be ready in the Spring of 1959.

Land was bought at West Valley and Pugh Roads, Tredyffrin Township to be held by the Diocese against the contingency of a large housing development adjacent to the new Industrial Park at King of Prussia. We have promised neighboring parishes that the Diocese will not build on this site until they agree a new church is needed.

Much time has been spent by members of the Department and others, especially the Director of Episcopal Community Services, the Rev. Arnold Purdie, in discussing and studying the challenge facing our city churches during this period of rapid change. Information has been received from other cities and other Dioceses as well as other denominations and we are almost ready to present a plan of attack for Philadelphia. The Department hopes that we will be willing to take the time and interest to discuss this matter fully as how we resolve this missionary obligation will be a matter of judgment on us.

Chairman

REPORT OF THE CONVOCATION OF CHESTER

For the Year 1958

The over all picture of the Missionary work in the Convocation of Chester is a very gratifying one and is a clear indication of the zeal and devotion of our Vicars and their congregations.

St. John's, Essington

During the year St. John's, Essington, attained parish status and we wish to congratulate the Rev. Francis Blake and his congregation on the excellent work they have displayed in the past. We wish this new Parish Godspeed in the work of the Kingdom.

Ascension, Parkesburg

This Mission, in charge of the Rev. Henry J. Sharp, continues to show a slow but gradual growth, particularly in the Church School. The property is now in excellent condition and the increase in offerings during the year 1958 reflects the spirit of this congregation.

St. John's, Compass

This Mission is also being administered to by the Rev. Mr. Sharp. During the year quite a bit of work was done on their parish house and the properties of this Mission are in excellent repair. While the congregation has not grown during the last few years to any extent, this Mission continues to be influential in that particular community.

St. Mary's, Warwick and
St. Mark's, Honey Brook

Both these Missions feel the benefits of the continued ministry of the Rev. Joseph H. Laird. The congregations are displaying their loyalty and devotion to the church. Services are well attended and the properties are kept in excellent shape.

During the last year St. Mark's in Honey Brook did some extensive work on their parking lot, painted the garage, Rectory and church buildings and re-plastered the outside of the Rectory.

The Rev. Mr. Laird works very closely with the Rev. Henry J. Sharp which has resulted in a splendid relationship between the four Missions in this part of the Chester Convocation.

St. Mary's, Chester

Father Reginald Kent finished his first year there and while the congregation remains small, there has been a marked interest on the part of the congregation to assume a larger financial responsibility in the work of this Mission. The church property seems to be in good shape. A painting program was carried out and the water seepage problem in the basement of the Rectory has been taken care of.

St. Luke's, Highland Gardens

The Rev. Norman Sorge became Vicar of this Mission in August, succeeding the Rev. Richard Herschel, who had served the Mission well. This Mission has been a Diocesan Mission since June, 1957. Prior to that it was a Chapel of St. Paul's Church in Chester.

There has been quite a bit of uncertainty in this neighborhood due to a proposed extension of a State Highway which would curtail the growth of the Mission. The Convocation and the Department of Missions are working very closely with St. Luke's at the present time, carefully watching any developments. The Vestry Committee has proved to be very capable and while there has been a drop in attendance, particularly in the Church School, it is probably due to the short tenure of office of the last three Vicars.

St. James, Green Ridge

This Mission is continuing to grow and finds it necessary to make some definite plans for enlarging their facilities in order to take care of the growing congregation and Church School. They now count over 230 Communicants. A Building Fund drive was conducted during the year and the amount of $35,000 was pledged on a three-year basis. At the same time their annual pledges were also considerably raised and the total amount collected by this Mission last year was almost $8,000. The enthusiasm of the congregation is backing up the growth and it continues to be one of our strongest Missions.

St. Luke's, Eddystone

This Mission, under the direction of the Rev. Richard Chapin, has continued to be able to take a large share in the Vicar's salary and their budgets in the last few years have gone from $5,200 to $6,700, with a budgeted figure for 1958 of $7,000, of which $5,825 was raised by the congregation and $1,200 was received from the Diocese. However, it is felt that a plateau has been reached. There has not been any decided change in the number of Communicants or Church School scholars in the last few years.

St. Andrew's, Belmont Hills

We are very much indebted to Mr. David E. Hilsee, Lay Reader, who has served this Mission well. During the four years that he has been at this Mission the attendance at the Sunday Services are gratifying and the enrollment of the Church School seems to justify the existence of this Mission here. With the exception of the few hundred dollars which the Mission pays towards the salary of the Lay Reader, the congregation assumes all expenses in connection with operating this Mission.

Ascension, West Chester and

St. Cyril's, Coatesville

Both these Missions are administered to by the Rev. Cecil H. Cowan and while their congregations are not large, there seems to be a steady and stable congregation attending them.

A new roof was installed on the Rectory of Ascension, West Chester. The Fall Convocation Meeting was held at the new Church of St. Cyril's in Coatesville which is a very attractive and useful building.

St. Christopher's, Oxford

The Rev. Lewis Worrall, Deacon, continues to be in charge of this work and has surrounded himself by a very devout congregation. Due to some possible re-routing of the highway the four-acre tract of land purchased for this Mission might be in jeopardy and the Convocation and the Department of Missions are closely watching any highway development. Unfortunately, this is delaying any definite building plans in the immediate future.

Holy Sacrament, Highland Park

Holy Sacrament, Highland Park, became a Diocesan Mission this summer and the Rev. Charles F. Kelbaugh was appointed as Vicar and took office as of December 1st. We found the Rectory to be in need of some major repairs which work was carried out under the direction of the Convocation. The property now is in excellent shape and with the renewed enthusiasm of the congregation we hope that this Mission will be able to regain its parish status within a few years.

Tredyffrin Township

In May of this year the Department of Missions purchased a site for a possible Mission on the Southeast corner of West Valley Road and Pugh Road, Tredyffrin Township. We are watching the building growth southeast of King of Prussia and with this property now belonging to the Diocese we will have a lot available in case the growth would justify the erection of a Mission on this site.

This year in particular the Committees of the Convocation have been most helpful in assisting the work of the Dean, and I wish to express my appreciation to the Chairman of the Reference Committee, Mr. Freas B. Snyder; the New Sites Committee Chairman, the Rev. Alfred Vail; the Property Committee Chairman, Mr. William C. Pierson; the Chairman of the Program Committee, the Rev. J. Gardner Hodder, and the members of their respective committees for the assistance that they have given.

The entire Executive Committee has been concerned with the work of the Convocation and meetings of this Committee have always been well attended. Mr. John Eiseman continues as Secretary-Treasurer of the Convocation and is working very closely with the Dean on many detailed matters.

Last, but not least, the continued interest of the Women of the Convocation is most gratifying. Mrs. Paul Banks has now retired as President and during her tenure of office, she has been very devout and sincere and a real help to the Dean.

Mrs. T. Truxton Hare, Jr., was elected President of the Auxiliary at the Spring meeting and I want to express my appreciation to her for the tremendous help she is to the work of the Convocation. She and her Executive Committee are always more than willing to assist wherever they can be of help.

Respectfully submitted,

PETER C. VAN DER HIEL, JR.,
Dean

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY OF THE CONVOCATION OF CHESTER

Our Constitution wants to be kept up to date. Here are four articles for your inspection:

*I. The name of this association shall be the Woman's Auxiliary of the Convocation of Chester.

II. The object of this Auxiliary* shall be to create and foster among our members a wider interest in the whole mission of the church, primarily in the Missions in the Convocation of Chester.

* The term, "Woman's Auxiliary," can be changed to conform with new titles for women in church work as voted October, 1958, at Miami Beach.

III. Each Parish and Mission shall be represented by two delegates, appointed by their Woman's Auxiliary or their Rector, for a term of three years. Rector's wives are members ex-officio. All women of the Convocation are welcome. Each Parish and Mission shall have one vote on matters pertaining to Constitution and By-Laws: on all other business matters, majority vote of those present.

VIII. Each Parish and Mission shall make an annual contribution toward the work undertaken by the Auxiliary*. Distribution of all monies received shall be subject to a two-thirds vote, shall be for work within the Convocation, and cannot count on Parish Quotas.

In April, 1958, the Convocation unanimously accepted the project for 1958-60. This pledges $4,000 to St. Christopher's, Oxford, and $1,000 to the Emergency Fund. Spring Meeting at St. Mary's, Ardmore, was led by Bishop Armstrong, the Dean, Rev. Williams and Rev. Dr. Berger of Maryland. Mrs. Parnum also spoke.

In October, Bishop Hart, the Dean, Rev. Dr. Robert McNair, of the Divinity School, and Rev. John Hauser, of our host church, St. Paul's, Chester, were with us, and Mrs. Perrin reported on General Convention.

Good news is that our former President, Mrs. Paul B. Banks, remains with us as Representative at Large. Her church, Trinity, Swarthmore, held a most successful area meeting to hear Rev. Eastman, of the Overseas Mission Society. Twenty-three churches were represented. Also good news is the participation of Convocation churches and missions in the Spring "panel." This project is boiling along. Do read your Christian Living so that we can all take a real part.

Respectfully submitted,

WINIFRED T. HARE,
President

REPORT OF THE CONVOCATION OF GERMANTOWN

We are humbly thankful for the increasing interest in the demonstration loyalty of the Parishes and Missions to the Convocation of Germantown.

We were made proud by the fact that all Accepted Shares were paid for 1958 and that all Parishes and Missions accepted a share of the Missionary Budget of 1959. Another indication of interest and loyalty is the increased attendance on the Convocation meetings. We are being faced with the pleasurable embarrassment of finding within the Convocation, Parish Houses large enough to accommodate so large a group at dinner. Still a further indication of interest is the unprecedented payment of dues. We are delighted that the attention given to this matter by the Treasurer has borne such good fruit.

The Spring Meeting took place in the Chapter House of the Cathedral at Roxborough. The Diocesan and Mrs. Hart shared the meeting with us. Following the Business Meetings of both the Convocation and its Woman's Auxiliary, dinner was served in the spacious auditorium of the Chapter House. The Bishop addressed the assembly and sketched the history of the Chapter House, which many of us were seeing for the first time. It was our pleasure at the evening service in the Cathedral to hear a challenging address by the Rev. Charles W. Shreiner, D.D., former Dean of the Convocation of Chester, the mainspring for many years of much of the missionary enterprise within the Diocese. We all benefited from the inspiration given by Dr. Shreiner.

The Fall Meeting of the Convocation and its Woman's Auxiliary was held in October at Trinity Church, Oxford. This meeting followed hard upon General Convention, of which Bishop Hart reported some of the high and side lights. Then Mr. Loring Dam, who is the Diocesan Chairman of the Department of Laymen's Work, reported on the new Department within the church. Mr. Dam included in his report a motion picture entitled "Strike with Power," a speech originally made by the Presiding Bishop to a meeting of the newly organized National Council Department for Laymen's Work. There were several other brief talks. All in all, it was a splendid meeting.

A study of the statistical reports would indicate that the work of the church in Bucks County is finding more normal levels than in those hectic days of 1956 and 1957 when the whole county was booming with housing developments. Although the number of baptisms and confirmations have slightly diminished, still over all attendance on Church Services and Church School increases, as does income. During the year no new Missions were added to the work of the Convocation.

The Church of the Redemption, Southampton, of which we told you much in last year's report, is erecting on the beautiful site purchased more than a year ago a colonial stone church. It should be ready for occupancy certainly by Whitsunday, if not before. The spirit here has grown apace with the erection of the church building, and all the high predictions of early acceptance of Parish status seem to be borne out in the experience of the last year. The settlement of a resident Vicar gave great impetus to the mission. Two services are now held each Sunday. A student at the Westminster Choir School has been engaged as Organist and Choirmaster. Vestments have been made for Choir and Servers by the women of the Parish. The Church School, under the direction of Mr. Manning, has 130 on roll. The youthfulness of this neighborhood is indicated by the fact that more than half of the enrollment is in pre-school grades. Redemption launched an Every-Member-Canvass in the fall, resulting in an outstanding success, underwriting a Budget of $14,000. In the realm of finances, the Vicar and Vestry are feeling their way and hope in a short time to become self-supporting. Several Parish organizations already exist. One group, Parish Extension, focuses its attention on welcoming newcomers to the community and making monthly canvass of new homes.

In September, the Rev. William R. McKean, Jr., moved into residence as the Vicar of Grace Church, Hulmeville. A Family Service at 9:30 has been added to the schedule, which is very popular with many of the new young families to which Grace ministers. The need for more classroom space is a pressing one and spurs the men of the Parish on in their basement digging efforts beneath the church. The men of Grace Church have always given devoted labor and are continuing to make many improvements in the fabric. Here is an earnest group of people striving always to do more and better things for their church. The Vicar says, "The overall picture is good. We are growing and making many new friends each day. With God's help and guidance, I am sure we will develop into a strong Parish."

Many improvements and projects have also been the story in Christ Church, Eddington. Because the property is in the path of the Delaware Expressway, the Vicar's family was moved to a very pleasant house on Street Road within a mile's distance of the present church and even nearer to the new site purchased for the new Christ Church, Eddington. At present we are in the process of seeking condemnation damages from the State through the Highway Department. Although the Expressway hangs over their heads, the Parish moves forward with no apparent concern. The vacated Rectory is now being used for Church School and is of considerable help in relieving the overcrowded Parish Hall, the teachers finding that they can do more effective teaching. The Parish House has been painted inside and out, and improvements have been made in the kitchen. Likewise, new Altar vestments have been added as memorial gifts. There has been the usual round of ticket-selling activities, with a minstrel show and periodic suppers. There being no commercial movie facilities in the area, Christ Church is filling a tremendous community Saturday need by showing films each week. Bus transportation is included in the donation of 25 cents; popcorn, candy and soda are on sale. A project begun, but now held in abeyance until the erection of a new church, is the pledging of memorial pews, thirty of which have already been promised. These are but the highlights of a very busy year. The Vicar reminds us that the Parish House does not dominate but that activities in the church go on apace.

The year 1958 long will be remembered at St. Paul's, Levittown, as one of growth, expansion and increased responsibility. Steady growth continues though the building of new homes in Levittown has been concluded. With the inauguration of St. Paul's Education Expansion Drive and the co-operation of the Diocese and the Capital Funds Campaign, a new Church School building was begun. Ground was broken at Easter time and the cornerstone was laid in the middle of June. By early November the contractor turned the building over to the Parish, and by a total effort "One Fell Swoop" more than 200 men over a week's period turned out —waxing floors, waterproofing, soundproofing the classroom area and general clean-up. All this was in preparation for a visitation from Bishop Hart on November 30, when he confirmed a class of 38 and blessed the new Parish House. St. Paul's expresses its gratefulness to the Diocese for the assistance given in the erection of this necessary Parish House, and to date have paid $15,000 on their pledge of $56,000. It will not be long before St. Paul's is knocking on the door of the Diocesan Convention asking permission to enter into Union with Parish status.

A year ago we reported on the proposed purchase of a property situated near the Chapel in New Hope. The purchase was made and has given new drive to St. Philip's Chapel. The building offers living quarters for the Vicar and ample space for Church School and Parish activities. The pride of ownership seeks to make itself known in the outward reach of the Chapel. The Dean spent a very happy winter afternoon with the Vicar and many of the people at St. Philip's.

The situation at All Saints', Fallsington, reflects the leveling off trend in Bucks County to more normal living, yet there has been steady growth. Regular attendance at Church School and at the Services shows increase. The Woman's Auxiliary, after completing its first full year, has a membership of 40 women with a progressive program. The outstanding indication of growth is in two financial enterprises undertaken during 1958. The first, in the spring of the year, was on behalf of the Diocesan Capital Funds Campaign. "Beginning with our Assigned Share of $400, we sought to make a gift to the campaign which would reflect our appreciation of that help which the Diocesan has given All Saints' through the years, and particularly in the erection of the new Parish House. After due deliberation, the Parish decided that $4,000 would be more in keeping with our gratitude. Imagine our surprise when this sum was oversubscribed." However, it was stated in the campaign that all over $4,000 would be used for capital expenditure here in the Mission. There were two such expenditures before the Mission, namely, the assessment for installation of a village sewer system and demolition of the old rectory. We are pleased to announce that All Saints' to date has sent to the Diocese $1,841 on their pledge of $4,000. The second financial success was in the Every-Member-Canvass when gifts and pledges surpassed the previous year by $1,000. The Vestry has had a deep concern for a drainage problem. Last year the spring rains and thaw raised the water table of the community to such an extent that the basement of the Parish House was inundated daily to three or four inches. This condition subsided in mid-May. Since this condition was due largely to the backing up of the community's sewage system, the town is making the new sewer a first priority. The men of the Mission also took local measures to make surface water drain away from the buildings. The interior of the church has been repainted, and a fine new Bible graces the Lectern. The Mission was privileged to overpay its Missionary Share, at the same time contributing $77.57 to special projects.

The increased spirit developed at St. Stephen's, Bridesburg, during the year 1957 has continued, and they now have a church property worthy of its name. The men of the Parish have continued their heroic efforts to reclaim the deterioration that had been overtaking the plant for many years. The Rector of St. Mark's Church, Frankford, continues to give effective oversight to this strategic work.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

CONVOCATION OF GERMANTOWN

Three meetings were held in 1958 with an average attendance of 116 women from 32 parishes. In January we met at All Saints', Fallsington, for a luncheon meeting and Mrs. Karl Beyer, Chairman of our Diocesan Department of Education, was our speaker.

In April we met at the Cathedral and Mrs. Jackson Daniel, Chairman of our Diocesan Department of Missions, spoke to us before we joined the men for supper and a service. In October our meeting was at Trinity Church, Oxford, and Mrs. P. Blair Lee gave a report on the 1958 General Convention, after which we joined the men for supper and an evening program.

We are grateful to Dean Dietrich for his leadership—he and the vicars of several of our missions have given us interesting news of our Diocese and Convocation.

REPORT OF THE CONVOCATION OF NORRISTOWN

The Convocation of Norristown has had a joyful and blessed year working for the Kingdom of God. We have seen a good growth in all of our Parishes and Missions, and we give thanks to God for all the people that have worked so hard and given so liberally to aid in this work.

Trinity Church, Gulph Mills—During the year, the work has been completed on a beautiful Colonial Church building; and the interior has been very attractively finished and furnished. The people of the Mission as well as the Convocation and the Diocese are justly proud of this accomplishment. The new Vicar and the people are to be congratulated on the large share of the work which they have carried in the furnishing of the beautiful interior.

Epiphany Church, Royersford, has had a fine year with the exception of a breakdown of their heating system in the church. This has been repaired at a cost of just over $216. The electrical work which has been going on for some time, has been completed. They continue to show growth both in numbers and in spiritual resources under the able leadership of their vicar, the Reverend Earl H. Brill.

St. Anne, Willow Grove, has had a busy year happily looking forward to the building of a new church. Plans have been completed and ground will be broken early in 1959. The congregation of St. Anne's has contributed $20,000 to help in the building of the church.

The Vicar, the Reverend Harold A. Hopkins, reports that their Church School has grown so large that they have to rent space in the neighborhood to take care of the additional numbers. They feel that with the added facilities of the new church they will be able to enlarge their ministry to the people in the neighborhood.

The Church of the Good Shepherd, Hilltown, has experienced a year of marked progress under the leadership of several of the clergy and in particular the continued leadership and work of the lay people, both men and women, of the Mission during the absence of the Reverend Dr. Nathaniel B. Groton the first eight months of the year. In September, the Reverend Frederick B. Halsey became Vicar of the Mission. Since that time, lawns have been planted, the exterior put in very good condition. They have also acquired fifteen acres and a house adjoining their property which is certain to be of great value in their future expansion.

We cannot close this report without expressing sincere appreciation to the Woman's Auxiliary of the Convocation for their continued support. Much of the progress we have experienced has been due to their giving so generously of their time and their labors. We thank them most heartily.

HERBERT W. JONES,
Dean of the Convocation

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY TO THE
CONVOCATION OF NORRISTOWN

The Spring meeting of the Convocation of Norristown met at All Hallow's Church in Wyncote on May 1st. Reports of Vicars and Woman's Work in our Missions, general business and a skit to promote interest in Church Periodical Club made up the program.

An Educational Day was held at the Church of Our Savior, Jenkintown, on September 24th. The film, "Middle East Profile," was shown, a report on an Alaskan Mission was given and a talk on volunteer opportunities in our area, completed the program.

The Fall meeting took place at Holy Trinity Church, Lansdale, on October 2nd. Miss Rachel Walker and Mrs. Edward Parnum were the speakers.

A Quiet Day for the Convocation was conducted at St. Margaret's House in February.

Respectfully submitted,

CATHARINE VAN HORN,
Chairman

CONVOCATION OF NORTH PHILADELPHIA

The Spring Meeting of the Convocation was held at the Church of the Advocate. Most of the Parishes and Missions sent representatives thus making this a very well-attended meeting.

We were interested and pleased to see the work that is going on at this location. At the business meeting the Dean was re-elected for another term. The Rev. Alfred Redding was elected Secretary, only to leave the Diocese the following month. The Rev. R. Sherwood Van Atta, the new Rector of St. Paul's, was appointed to fill the vacancy.

The Fall Meeting was held at St. Paul's. The main part of the program consisted of the film of the Presiding Bishop's visit to Virginia Seminary.

There have been several changes in the clergy since our last report. The Rev. John McGrory retired, the Rev. Alfred Redding went south, the Rev. Francis Blake went to Essington, the Rev. John Treleaven went to New Jersey, and the Rev. J. N. Wheatley went to Florida. We wish all of them success. We are most happy to welcome the Rev. Howard Lorenz to St. Luke's, the Rev. Robert Deacon to Grace and the Incarnation, and the Rev. Walter Thompson to St. Nathaniel's.

The women of the Convocation under the very able leadership of Mrs. Wm. Loane continue to do their usual good work.

Sincerely,

DAVID O. TRAUGER,

Dean

CONVOCATION OF SOUTH PHILADELPHIA

The Spring meeting of Convocation was held at St. Elisabeth's Mission and was an interesting one. The Convocation elected the Rev. J. Aubrey Cragg, Vicar of the Chapel of the Prince of Peace, as Clerical Representative to the Executive Council, and Dr. Raymond Snyder of St. Peter's Church, as Lay Representative.

The Fall meeting was held at St. John the Evangelist Church. The Very Rev. Peter C. Van der Hiel, Jr., Dean of the Convocation of Chester, gave an interesting and instructive report on the proceedings of General Convention, held in Miami Beach, Fla., in October. The Convocation was grateful to Dean Van der Hiel for his fine presentation.

The Rev. Theron A. Vallee, Vicar of St. Elisabeth's Mission since 1951, resigned as Vicar to accept the Rectorship of St. Timothy's Church, Roxborough, as of October 1, 1958. We congratulate Father Vallee and wish for him many years of success in his new parish. Father Vallee, who had been elected Secretary of the Convocation at the Spring meeting, resigned as Secretary. The Dean appointed Dr. Raymond Snyder as Secretary Pro-tem.

Mr. Ralph Potter, Warden of St. Elisabeth's, made the report for the Mission. The people of the Mission are working hard and will do all they can to help the new Vicar when one is appointed to be in charge. Much work is still to be done and the people are determined to see that it is done, with God's help.

The Dean appointed the Rev. Dr. Harry S. Longley, Rev. Janney Rudderow, Rev. John R. Logan, Jr., Dr. Raymond Snyder and Mr. Benjamin F. Ashwood as the Nominating Committee to present nominations for Dean, Secretary and Treasurer of the Convocation, together with nominations for Clerical and Lay Representation to the Executive Council.

The Convocation and the Woman's Aid appropriated money for part scholarships for young people of the Convocation to attend the Summer Conference.

Since our last report, the Rector of the Church of the Crucifixion, died suddenly. While the Rev. George A. Fisher was Rector of the parish for only a short time he had many plans for the work of the parish.

We welcome to the Convocation the Rev. J. H. Dingle, as Rector of the Church of the Crucifixion, and the Rev. Joseph Koci, Jr., as Rector of St. Peter's Church.

We congratulate Mrs. Frederick C. Price, Jr., on her election to the Presidency of the Woman's Aid to the Convocation. We trust that Mrs. Price and her officers will meet with much success. We are grateful for the co-operation of the Woman's Aid in the work we are doing in South Philadelphia in carrying on in this rapidly changing section of our city.

WOMAN'S AID TO CONVOCATION OF SOUTH PHILADELPHIA

The Woman's Aid to the South Philadelphia Convocation held three meetings during the past year, and an evening Get-together Meeting.

The winter meeting was an all-day affair at St. Mark's Church at which Miss Walker was the speaker.

In April, we met at St. Elizabeth's Church at which time Mrs. Frederick C. Price was elected Chairman, and Mrs. Beatrice Jordan was elected Secretary. A rising vote of appreciation was given the outgoing Chairman, Mrs. Frederic Nelson. We joined with the men for the evening meeting.

In June, Miss Deane of St. Elizabeth's Church, invited the women of the Convocation to that Church to hear from Mrs. Victor Perrin and to enjoy a very delightful social evening.

The autumn meeting was held at the Church of St. John the Evangelist and was given over to a description of some phases of women's work in the Church. Speakers were Miss Harriet Bunting for Daughters of the King; Miss Frances Talbott described the work of the Needlework Guild; Mrs. Elmer Burns spoke on behalf of the work of the Elizabeth Price Martin League at the Philadelphia General Hospital. Sister Dorothea gave us an illuminating account of the work of the Sisters of St. Margaret. In the evening we joined with the men for a devotional service led by Bishop Armstrong; and after a delicious meal, served by the women of St. John's, heard the Rev. Dr. Peter Van der Hiel describe the work of the General Convention from which he had just returned as a delegate from this Diocese.

During the past year we provided money for six scholarships to the Youth Conferences, sent gifts to the Chinese Christian Church and Community Center and the Philadelphia Divinity School.

We also sent money for Christmas parties to two of the Churches in the Convocation.

REPORT OF THE CONVOCATION OF WEST PHILADELPHIA

The three Missions of the Convocation have had a very fruitful and constructive year. The good people of St. Titus and St. Cyprian have done particularly well in spite of the disconcerting circumstances due to the City's Redevelopment Planning in the Eastwick area.

St. Cyprian's Elmwood

For the past year, St. Cyprian's has experienced both an increase as well as a decline; and one might say that the former has in part, been caused by the latter.

Since the last report has been submitted, the City Council of Philadelphia voted their approval for the Redevelopment of the Eastwick area, and this was soon followed by a condemnation of all properties (Dec. 1958) with titles of same passing into the hands of the Redevelopment Authority.

The decline mentioned above was caused by this act, and a gradual but definite exodus has been taking place from the area. Unfortunately this fact cannot be shown in a Parochial Report because most persons insist that they may leave the area but they are not leaving their Church. We retain their names as Communicants, but we do lose most of them from active participation in the life of the Church. In spite of the disquieting thought of having to move, if not by the month of May, at least some time in the future, those who are still remaining are working equally as hard, and many even harder in order to compensate for our losses.

Our attendance is smaller by ten or twelve at each service, and our income has decreased. Our Sunday school is also decreasing somewhat in size.

The Vicar is not alarmed by this situation. He was well aware of the fact that this was to happen when he accepted the Bishop's appointment to serve this congregation in October of 1954. It has indeed brought about a pastoral relationship not only with the members of his congregation, but with the community at large which could only be experienced by a situation such as this which involves human sufferings, mentally, materially, as well as socially.

The Vicar wishes to alert the Department of Missions and our West Philadelphia Convocation that the time is approaching when we may not be able to compensate for our losses by struggling to maintain our standards of former days, and that we will then be forced to ask for additional help in order to keep alive this potentially great work.

St. Monica's Mission

St. Monica's Mission is a Diocesan Mission located on Woodland Avenue at St. Mark's Street. This is an area that is fast becoming a commercial district. Many of the little houses which were around the Church have been torn down and now St. Monica's stands almost alone across from the Philadelphia College of Pharmacy.

The Chapel occupies a sturdy two story stone building that was built about forty years ago with the idea of adding a third floor which was to be used as a Parish Day School.

The basement is used for Church School Classes and all parish activities, such as Suppers, Card parties, Boy Scouts, Teen Age Canteen, etc. An in between half floor houses a small chapel and vestry room as well as rest rooms.

The top floor is equipped and used for Church Services. This is the building which although inadequate is used for a growing congregation of over four hundred fifty members, who have hopes of becoming a parish in the near future.

There are regular services each Sunday at 8:00 A.M. and 11 A.M.

The Church School has 81 students with 17 teachers.

The following are the active organizations: The Women of St. Monica's (Woman's Auxiliary), The Rector's Aid Guild, The Altar Guild, The Servers Guild, The Choir, St. Monica's Guild, The Men's Fellowship, Boy Scout Troop and Teen Age Canteen.

To summarize the whole program of St. Monica's Mission I would say that we are doing the best we can with what we have for our community, both spiritually and materially and there are healthy signs of growth in all areas of the work.

St. Titus' Mission, Elmwood

The work at St. Titus has extended itself into new areas during the year. The Young People's organization has, in this regard, been very active. A Daily Vacation Bible School was sponsored by the Young People's group during this past summer. This program met with such success that it is to become an integral part of the whole Church School Program. Enrollment in this special program nearly doubled that of the previous year.

Also, a Young People's choir was begun during the summer. This, too, is showing great promise; and has greatly enriched the worship at St. Titus.

The Woman's Auxiliary of St. Titus has been a great strength to the mission. It has sponsored many projects to aid the Mission financially.

For the first time at St. Titus, an every-member Canvass was initiated, together with the Pledge system. The response to this appeal has been very encouraging. "Redevelopment" in the area has begun to have its effects on our Mission. Although there have been just a few families move from the area, this has been enough to weaken such a small Mission.

It is most encouraging to have the devoted and dedicated services of the two Vicars and one Seminarian in charge of these Missions. I am deply grateful for their cooperation, loyalty and splendid leadership. The Woman's Auxiliary to the Convocation continues its very helpful program and I wish to express my gratitude to Miss Mary L. Smythe and her associates for their fine contributions to the work and endeavors of the Convocation.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN H. A. BOMBERGER, Dean

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY OF THE CONVOCATION OF WEST PHILADELPHIA

1958

We had our three usual Convocation Meetings:

1. Education Day, January 16, 1958, was held at St. Mary's Church, 39th and Locust Streets. The Rector, The Rev. William X. Smith, welcomed us and, although it was a snowy day, we had a good meeting, and as always, Mrs. U. Grant Beath gave us a really inspirational discussion on Bishop Bayne's Book — "Christian Living."

2. In the Spring, on May 1st, we met at the Church of the Saviour, 38th and Chestnut Streets, at 4:15 p.m., and later joined the men of the Convocation for dinner. After Dinner, Dr. James L. Jones gave us an illustrated talk on "The Dead Sea Scrolls." Dr. Jones, a member of the Divinity School faculty, is an authority on this subject and was quite familiar with all written contributions on these discoveries.

3. Our Fall meeting was held at the Church of the Atonement, 47th and Kingsessing Avenue. We were made most welcome.

Mrs. Carl Beyer told us of the Convention at Miami. In her sincere way she made us all share in her experience there as a delegate.

We joined the men for dinner and were addressed by Bishop Hart and the clergy in charge of our three missions.

The Annual Card Party and Fashion Show was a friendly social occasion and added $57.15 to our Treasury.

Following our usual custom we distributed coin cards, to be filled during the summer months. They netted $65.90.

We extend our sincere thanks to Dean Bomberger and the Vicars of the West Philadelphia Convocation for their continued interest and cooperation in the work of our missions.

M. L. SMYTHE,
Chairman

DEPARTMENT OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION DIOCESE OF PENNSYLVANIA

Annual Report of 1958

The year 1958 has been one of transition as far as the leadership of the department is concerned. Due to health reasons, the Rev. Philemon F. Sturges, chairman of the department for four years, resigned. No one appreciates the depth of this loss more than the present chairman, who each day discovers another area in which Mr. Sturges' influence is felt. The department, indeed the diocese, owes the past chairman a great debt of gratitude for his quiet and strong leadership.

There have also been changes in the leadership of the various divisions. These are noted in the reports that follow. To the past chairmen, we owe much; to the new chairmen, we are obliged for the fine way in which they have assumed their duties. The result is one that has produced a strong, working department of which the diocese may truly be proud. Another change that took place was that Mrs. Dorothy B. Vaughn resigned to return to parish work and Miss Emily L. Stanford came on the staff as assistant to Miss Newman.

The department has sought this past year to think through its responsibilities and to study the means whereby it might be of greater service to the diocese. We found that the two basic problems facing the Church and, therefore, the department, today were in the areas of communication and leadership. Better understanding of these two problems became the major emphasis. To this end the department asked Bishop Hart to have another clergy conference at Buck Hill Falls, similar to the one held in 1951. Bishop Hart acquiesced and the Rev. Albert T. Mollegen of Virginia Seminary and the Rev. Charles R. Stinnette of Union Seminary accepted an invitation to lead a conference dealing with these problems. At the end of the conference it was the unanimous feeling that Bishop Hart be asked to plan such conferences at least every three years.

It is hoped that some of these new insights and perspectives will be felt in the diocese and in our parishes and missions where the real work of Christian Education takes place. We ask for your continuing prayers.

Adult Division

Several Parish Life Conferences were held during 1958—for both adults and young people. A Parish Life Mission was held at Redeemer, Springfield, with the Rev. Richard Smith of the National Council and the Executive Secretary of this department, Miss Newman, as leaders. This confirmed our belief in the value of this training device.

The printing of the adult education pamphlet was postponed.

Our real appreciation was expressed to Mrs. C. Stanley Rogers for her leadership in this field of work. Mrs. Rogers found it necessary to limit her activities and resigned the chairmanship. She will remain as a member of the division. The Rev. T. Norman Mason became chairman following a short period under the leadership of the Rev. Robert N. Back.

Children's Division

This division prepared four issues of the "Memorandum from Room 30" and incorporated in them special seasonal helps.

A date for parishes needing help in selecting courses for the Church School was set and plans made for individual counselling but it was cancelled because of the small registration. Those requesting help received it on an individual basis from Miss Newman.

The 88th Annual Church School Institute was postponed because it coincided with General Convention. The department chose to accept the invitation of the Main Line Church School Association to participate in their Fall meeting and hear the Rev. W. Norman Pittenger, S.T.D., Professor at General Seminary speak on "What is Christian Education" and declared this to be the 88th Church School Institute.

Church School-by-Mail The Rev. Joseph H. Laird, Chairman

Thirty-one new children were enrolled, making a total of 173 for the year. Thirty-five of this number became members of the nearest Sunday Schools of various denominations, others moved or outgrew the work, leaving 112 on roll at the end of 1958.

Of the 54 families on roll, 31 returned question sheets, 75% regularly and 25% irregularly. Of the others, 7 mailed in cards or letters, and 16 were helped by reading the books. Mite Box offering was $8.40.

Seventy-eight visits were made, 53 to families enrolled, and 25 seeking new children. Seven families were helped by social service; and 197 gifts were given at Christmas. Two-hundred and thirty-six scholarships were received to finance the work.

Parishes actively participating were Advent, Kennett Square; St. James, Downingtown; Ascension, West Chester; Ascension, Parkesburg; St. John's, Compass; St. Mark's, Honey Brook; and St. Mary's, Warwick.

Guild of the Christ Child

We continue to supply and promote the Diocese of Maryland material. Our diocesan seal replaces the Maryland seal. Our decision was to make no changes until our National Church material is ready.

Special Offerings Committee

The Rev. Edward B. Pollanick, Chairman

The 1958 Church School Missionary Offering amounted to $26,574.59 from 159 parishes plus Church School-by-Mail.

The Presentation Service was held June 1st at Episcopal Academy. Due to conflict in dates this was the only "open" Sunday we could use the Academy facilities. The number in attendance was smaller than usual due to the holiday weekend.

The committee made a study of the situation and recommended to the department that we plan the 1959 Presentation Service on the grounds of the Cathedral. They also recommended that the Service always be held on the 4th Sunday after Easter. The recommendation was accepted and plans proceeded on this basis.

The Advent Offering (to date) totalled $954.93 and was designated for equipment and furnishings for enlarged parish hall of St. James, Green Ridge.

The Birthday Thank Offering amounted to $186.24 from 9 parishes.

Christmas Box. Due to illness Mrs. Braun was unable to be active this year so Mrs. Walter Miller acted as the Christmas Box Secretary and Clearing House for the thousands of gifts given by approximately 30 of our Church Schools to institutions and missions.

Vacation Church Schools

We continue to cooperate with the Philadelphia Council of Churches in their center-city and area training schools; and help parishes and missions plan their curriculum.

Weekday Religious Education

We keep abreast of the laws and court decisions through the Philadelphia Council of Churches and participate in their program for teachers in the field of religion and public education.

Youth Division

The Rev. John F. Hardwick
The Rev. Donald L. Farrow
The Rev. G. Crofton Thompson

The Annual Episcopal Young Churchmen's Service was held February 2nd at St. Luke and the Epiphany. The preacher was the Rev. Richard L. Harbour, Executive Secretary, Division of Youth, National Council. A reception followed the service for over eleven hundred young people.

A Parish Life Conference for the Youth Council and a few other Episcopal Young Churchmen was held February 7th-9th.

Elected officers of the Youth Council for 1958-59 were: Marto Lentz, Linda Miller, and Stephanie Hingston.

In February the Rev. Robert N. Back, chairman, resigned and a reorganization of the Youth Division was approved. The Rev. John F. Hardwick became chairman and convener with particular responsibility for training advisors. The Rev. Mr. Farrow and the Rev. Mr. Thompson were appointed co-chairmen with responsibilities respectively for Youth Council work and summer Youth Conferences.

The Provincial Youth Conference was held at the Diocese of Pennsylvania Conference Center in April and we had a delegation of eight.

The Youth Convention was held May 3rd—at the Conference Center—in the rain—with 292 registered.

A Youth Advisors Training session was held on May 10th at the Church House.

Three Youth Conferences were held—Senior High, June 22nd-28th and July 29th-July 5th. Junior High, July 6th-12th. Two of these conferences were filled to capacity with stand-by lists.

Four young people and two advisors attended the National Youth Convention at Oberlin College, August 20th-27th.

A Youth Council Weekend was held at the Conference Center September 5th-7th.

The Ten Youth Districts combined for one large meeting on October 5th to hear the Rev. Cornelius C. Tarplee speak on Christianity and Civil Rights. This meeting was held at the Church of the Advocate.

The Youth Council meets monthly to work on and carry out the responsibilities committed to them.

Leadership Training Division

The Rev. Alfred Vail, Chairman

During 1958 this division led the department in its study of the basic problems it faces as it seeks to fulfill its task. It was also concerned with developing deeper insights and growth in the field of training leaders both on the diocesan and parish level. It provided means of training for teachers of the Seabury Series and offered help for parishes using the Fellowship Series and other materials. This division was primarily responsible for the planning of Bishop Hart's Clergy Conference.

The resignation, and departure to another diocese, of the chairman, the Rev. H. Lawrence Whittemore, was a blow not only to the work of leadership training but to the whole field of Christian Education. We regret his going but wish him God-speed.

Audio-Visual Commission

The Rev. Kenneth C. Werner, Chairman

A special study of the work and cost involved in the handling of our Audio-Visual Library, and the expressed desires of our parishes, resulted in the following decision by the department.

All 16mm films were consigned to a commercial distributor. This would provide first-class conditioning and handling of the films. It would also provide the mailing service which parishes were requesting.

Membership cost in the Audio-Visual Cooperative was reduced and mailing privilege granted. After only three months' operation under this new system there was no doubt as to the wisdom of the decision. However, the entire situation will be reviewed at the end of a year.

The above reports read quickly—too quickly when it is realized the vast amount of time and thought, not to say energy, that each represents. To the large group of volunteers and personnel who have made this possible, a sincere "thank you" must be expressed; and especially to the Executive Secretary and her staff who in so many ways is the Diocesan Department of Christian Education.

Respectfully submitted,

ELBERT K. ST. CLAIRE,
Chairman

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE DEPARTMENT OF CHRISTIAN SOCIAL RELATIONS OF THE DIOCESE OF PENNSYLVANIA

As a Department of the Executive Council of the Diocese, the Department of Christian Social Relations carries out its work through three Divisions and through ad hoc and other committees related to the Department as a whole.

Committees of the Department as a whole:

Parish Clergy—Under the leadership of the Rev. Charles Francis Ehly, eight parish reactors met three times in the course of 1958 to share their experiences in Christian Social Relations within and through their parishes. The committee plans to continue its quarterly meetings to share experiences in pioneering means by which parishes may express their Christian concerns in the communities to which they minister;

Joint Legislative—Under the leadership of Martin P. Snyder, Esq., this committee stood ready to study legislative measures referred to it either by the Woman's Auxiliary Department of Christian Social Relations or this Department, and to help frame resolutions to be submitted to the Annual Convention for its consideration;

The Committees on Institutes—In the Spring, under the leadership of the Rev. James G. Ludwig, III, a new departure in the Diocesan institutes on Christian Social Relations took place in that five simultaneous regional meetings were held for Church people in various areas of the Diocese, preceded by a "Briefing Session" at the Conference Center for all those involved in the leadership of the meetings. The Spring Institute theme was "The Gospel in the Community." Attendance at the meetings was far in excess of that of any previous institute. In the fall, following the same pattern, the theme was "Crime and Punishment." Mr. Ludwig again served as General Chairman, with the Rev. Alfred Vail as program chairman, and the combined attendance at the fall meetings set still another record;

Two exploratory meetings between the chairmen and staff of the Departments of Christian Education and Christian Social Relations were held during the year, with a view to better communications and more effective cooperation between the two departments. During the year, plans were made for a similar sort of meeting between this Department and the Executive Board of the Woman's Auxiliary Department of Christian Social Relations;

The Rev. T. Norman Mason served as chairman of a committee to draft a resolution on Racial Understanding to be considered by the 1958 Diocesan Convention. At the suggestion of the Executive Council of the Diocese, it was submitted beforehand to the vestries and Bishop's Committees of parishes and missions so that it might have "grass roots" consideration prior to action on it by Diocesan Convention.

Division of Christian Citizenship:

Under the chairmanship of Edward Shippen Morris, Esq., and with Henry Thomas Dolan, Esq., as vice-chairman, and the Rev. Arthur C. Barnhart as staff consultant, the Division of Christian Citizenship functioned principally through three committees — The Christian and His Daily Work, Capital Punishment, and The Committee to Implement the Diocesan Resolution on Racial Understanding. Chairman of the first two of these is Henry Thomas Dolan, Esq., and the Rev. Daniel B. Stevick chairs the last named committee;

The Committee on the Christian and His Daily Work met eight times in the course of 1958, and has offered its services to any parishes interested in establishing parish committees or study groups on the subject;

The Committe on Capital Punishment continued to meet in 1958, amassed a substantial bibliography on the subject, provided some speakers to parish and non-Church groups, and introduced a resolution for Executive Council to consider. Some of the resources of this committee were also called upon in connection with the Fall Institute on Crime and Punishment;

The Committee to Implement the Diocesan Resolution on Racial Understanding held one organizational meeting, interviewed a number of parish clergy in the Diocese, and some executives of organizations working in the area of human relations, and met once to confer with the Rev. Arthur G. Walmsley, Executive Secretary of the Division of Christian Citizenship of the National Council's Department. It plans regular monthly meetings for the forthcoming year, and has appointed sub-committees on Bibliography and Community Resources.

Division of World Relief and Church Cooperation:

Under the leadership of Miss Florence L. Davies, who also serves as Diocesan Secretary of World Relief and Church Cooperation, this Division placed two refugee families. Work has continued with the adjustment and special problems of families who arrived previously. An effort has been made to gain understanding of, and contributions for, The Presiding Bishop's Fund for World Relief through publicity. Participation in the annual clothing drive was stimulated through the Woman's Auxiliary Department of Christian Social Relations and through the Department of Christian Education. The resettlement of refugees in the community and their status nationally was considered in cooperation with other community agencies.

Division of Health and Welfare:

Under the chairmanship of the Rev. Stanley R. West, D.D., this Division has definite accomplishments to its credit, and has plans at work to bring still more to accomplishment.

During the year 1958 The Alcohol Committee functioned under the chairmanship of the Rev. Jerry E. Carpenter. Some of its members filled speaking engagements stimulated by the work of the committee in previous years, and the committee also had in mind a clergy conference on the subject;

The Narcotics Committee had a number of meetings in the early part of the year to hear from those working in the field on the local, state, and national front. It prepared a report of its findings for the Department. The Department saw no action that it could take at this time, but, in the meantime, the committee is watching developments in this field by having its chairman a member of the Citizen's Committee on Narcotics of Region 7 of the Health Department of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania;

The Committee on Church Related Health and Welfare Services began to study how it might be of help to the church related agencies and to the Diocese. One result of this was a dinner and evening meeting with representatives of church related agencies serving the Ageing for the purpose of sharing information about their several programs. Closely related to the concerns of this committee was a series of meetings called at the invitation of the Bishop, and chaired by him, of representatives of four church related children's agencies. These meetings had the Rev. Arnold Purdie as staff consultant and secretary. Under the leadership of the Rev. Ernest A. Harding, D.D., significant accomplishments are expected from this committee.

Respectfully submitted,

SYDNEY L. W. LEA,
Department Chairman

APPENDIX I

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE CELEBRATION OF THE 175th ANNIVERSARY OF THE DIOCESE

We have the honor to report that the Committee has carried out the instructions of the Convention to have a worthy and fitting celebration of the 175th Anniversary of the Diocese. The following events have taken place:

A Youth Service was held on Sunday afternoon February 1 at St. Luke and the Epiphany Church, commemorating the anniversary, at which the speaker was Dean Murray of the Cathedral at Erie. There was a large attendance.

On Sunday March 8, a congregation filled Christ Church, the mother Church of the Diocese, at which the preacher was Bishop Armstrong. The rectors of several of the early Churches participated.

At the Presentation Service of the Lenten Missionary Offering on the grounds of the Cathedral in Roxborough, young people of the Diocese presented a Historic Pageant.

Anniversary Services were held in all parishes of the Diocese on Sunday May 3. Special leaflets with historic facts of the Diocese were prepared for this occasion.

An exhibit at the Free Library of Philadelphia on the Parkway from April 27 to May 11 displayed some of the treasures of the past, as well as present day items of interest. This was assembled by the Rev. Joseph Koci, a member of the committee.

A Short History of the Diocese was prepared by the chairman for the anniversary, and published by the Episcopal Tract Society.

At various meetings of the Woman's Auxiliary, historical facts of the Diocese were presented.

The culmination of the anniversary was a great Service of Thanksgiving held in the Academy of Music on Monday evening May 4. The Presiding Bishop, the Rt. Rev. Arthur Lichtenberger was the special speaker. The Bishops from the other Dioceses in Pennsylvania were present, and the Rt. Rev. Frederick J. Warnecke of Bethlehem brought greetings. The choir of St. Peter's Church led the singing under the direction of Dr. Harold W. Gilbert, choirmaster. The Valley Forge Military Band played for the clergy procession. Mr. William Talbot, a member of the committee, was responsible for the erection of the altar on the stage and other settings. The Rev. Dr. W. Roulston McKean and the Rev. William C. P. Loane were in charge of the arrangements for the service. The Academy was filled and many had to be turned away.

The public press gave good publicity to all the events and the Church News ran feature articles over a period of several months.

We believe that the whole Diocese was made conscious of the accomplishments of our Church during these 175 years. We trust that these endeavors will be an inspiration for years to come.

The Committee expresses its gratitude for the enthusiastic response from all people of the Diocese, and for the cooperation of the secretaries in the Church House.

PRESENTATION OF THE CHURCH FOUNDATION REPORT TO THE DIOCESAN CONVENTION MAY 5, 1959

Bishop Hart and Fellow Deputies:

The Annual Report of the Church Foundation to the Diocesan Convention is submitted herewith. We hope that you will examine this report and keep it for future reference. Extra copies are available upon request.

As Trustee for the Diocese, The Church Foundation manages 29 Diocesan Capital Funds having a total book value of $1,882,000. The income is applied to various purposes in accordance with the terms of the trusts.

The Church Foundation has been named residual legatee in the Estate of Mrs. Mary Frances Nunns, which should amount to a very substantial sum, possibly nearly $1,000,000. The income will be used at the discretion of the Bishop for the good of the Diocese.

The Church Foundation also acts as Trustee for 169 capital funds with a total book value of $3,240,000 for various Parishes, Parish Organizations, Missions, Cemeteries and Church Institutions. The total of new funds and additions to existing funds received during the year 1958 are listed on pages 4 and 5, totaling $773,100 so our responsibilities are growing. Among the new funds received was the Harriet L. Smith Memorial for the Church Farm School in the amount of $260,099 and five funds of the Women's Auxiliary of the Diocese totaling $46,370. We acknowledge with thanks the receipt of these and other new funds.

Information is given in this report regarding real estate transactions and building contracts during the past year. Title is held to 32 Diocesan properties as well as 65 Parishes.

Our main concern is to carry adequate fire insurance with extended coverage for windstorm damage on all the Church buildings for which we are responsible. Elimination of fire hazards and regular electrical inspections is also most important. The details of our insurance activities is covered on pages 10 to 15 of this report.

A full description of our investment work starts on page 15. Lists of securities held and detailed information regarding our Consolidated Fund and our Consolidated Legal Fund together with tabulations and charts is shown on succeeding pages to the end of the report on page 34. The Investment Committee has the responsibility for the supervision of our investments while the Provident Tradesmens Bank and Trust Company acts as our fiscal agent and has custody of all securities, real estate deeds and insurance policies.

The bank also keeps all the records of our various funds and provides us with our office. They have reduced their administration charges on all funds over $100,000 as well as funds participating in our Consolidated Legal Fund, making present rates very reasonable.

I wish to take this opportunity to express my thanks to our president, Bishop Hart, and all members of our Board for their helpful assistance in various fields of service. It has made my work a most rewarding experience.

I am very happy to call on the Reverend John R. Hart, Rector of the Washington Memorial Chapel, Valley Forge, and a member of our Board, who has offered to speak to you briefly about his experience with the Church Foundation.

E. Osborne Coates
Executive Vice-President

Legacies

As reported last year, an amendment to the Pennsylvania Inheritance Tax Law provides that any bequests made to Organizations operated exclusively for Religious or Charitable purposes are now exempt from an inheritance tax. This law is effective to estates of persons having died after July 11, 1957.

Gifts to Churches are now allowed exemption up to 30% of gross income per year for income tax purposes.

The following legacies were received during the year 1958:

Estate of Percy M. Owens

Under the Will of Mr. Percy M. Owens, Deceased, the Church Foundation was given a sum of $5,000 "for the use of the Episcopalian Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania at the discretion of the resident Bishop." A check for $5,000 was received by The Church Foundation on February 26, 1958, in payment of this legacy, and at the request of the Bishop was sent to him to be applied by him to his Revolving Fund.

Estate of Helen M. Zebley

A legacy in the amount of $10,561.23 was received April 2, 1958, from the Estate of Helen M. Zebley for the use of St. Ambrose Mission. Estate of Howard H. Demmert

Under the Will of Howard H. Demmert, who died July 15, 1958, we received the sum of $5,000 bequeathed to The Church Foundation for the use of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania. At the request of Bishop Hart, this amount was appropriated to the principal of a Fund, formerly known as the Diocesan Reserve Fund, and now called The Church Foundation Fund, the income from which to be applied for administration expenses.

Estate of Gertrude Craige Roberts

A legacy in the principal amount of $28,950 was received from the Estate of Gertrude Craige Roberts on December 22, 1958. The will contains a clause leaving this bequest "to such of the charities operated under the jurisdiction of the Protestant Episcopal Church as may be selected or appointed by the Rt. Rev. Oliver J. Hart, D.D., Bishop of the Diocese of Pennsylvania."

In the exercise of the power of selection, Bishop Hart designated The Church Foundation as Trustee, and to pay the net income as it shall be directed from time to time by the Department of Christian Education of the Diocese of Pennsylvania for the furtherance of its work among young people in the Diocese.

As title holder to these properties we have had independent appraisals made of these properties and submitted them to the Authority. The whole matter is still under negotiation. Completion Bonds on Building Contracts

At the instigation of our Insurance Committee, all Building Contracts are protected by a completion bond. Our position as Trustee makes this a necessary requirement to safeguard our funds in case of the possibility that the builder becomes financially over extended. The cost of these bonds is ½ to ¾ of 1% of the amount of the contract, depending upon the financial qualification of the builder.

Building Funds

During the year we received $10,000 additional from St. Anne's, Willow Grove, for their building fund. This brought total contributions from the Mission to $20,000.

A total of $15,000 has been received from St. Paul's, Levittown as a refund of payments made by the Diocese. The members have also made substantial contributions in labor and materials as additions to their building fund.

A sum of $8,351.50 was received from Trinity, Gulf Mills, to be added to their building fund for additions to the building contract. All bills have now been paid in full.

INSURANCE

Mission Properties

A total of $3,250,152.00 fire insurance with extended coverage, vandalism and malicious mischief, is now in force in 27 Mission properties in the Diocese. This insurance is mostly placed with the Church Fire Insurance Corporation and represents at least 80% of insurable value which complies with the direction of the Executive Council. Increased insurance on twelve Mission properties was put into effect during the past year.

The Church Fire Insurance Corporation rates continue to give the benefit of the 20% discount below the rates established by the Rating Board. The five year rate is now 4.4 times the annual rate, but the privilege is continued of paying the premiums in twenty quarterly installments.

The following is a list of the Mission properties together with the insurance in force.

Parish Properties

As the result of up-to-date appraisals for fire insurance purposes by the Church Fire Insurance Corporation, changes in fire insurance were recorded during the past year in the following Parishes, whose title is in the name of The Church Foundation.

All Saints, Darby
Holy Comforter, Drexel Hill
Redeemer, Andalusia
St. Aidan's, Cheltenham
St. Andrew, West Philadelphia
St. Barnabas, Germantown
St. George, Ardmore

St. Nathanael, Philadelphia
St. Martin, Marcus Hook
St. Paul Memorial Church, Philadelphia
St. Philip-in-the-Field, Oreland
St. Simeon, Philadelphia
St. Stephen, Clifton Heights
Trinity, Ambler
Trinity, Buckingham

Diocesan Conference Center, Radnor

The Diocesan Conference Center is insured in the amount of $342,700. under a blanket policy with the Church Fire Insurance Corporation, covering all buildings and contents for fire, extended coverage and vandalism insurance.

Mr. John W. R. Harding, Jr., Director of the Conference Center reported last July that fire protection recommendations submitted by the Church Fire Insurance Corporation had been given attention. These were largely matters of good housekeeping and did not affect rates.

On an inspection which we made, we discovered that both the main building and the annex are within 600 feet of a fire hydrant on Upper Gulf Road. The fire insurance rates of the Rating Board did not allow credit for this protection, which rates are used by the Church Fire Insurance Corporation after discount.

Through the efforts of Mr. Louis M. Washburn, Chairman of our Insurance Committee, an application was made to the Middle Department Association of Fire Underwriters for re-rating to credit protection by the public fire hydrant on Upper Gulf Road. This procedure resulted in the reduction of the Board Rates for fire insurance coverage by about 30%. The information was passed on to the Church Fire Insurance Corporation which resulted in the reduction of the quarterly insurance premiums from $330.03 to $228.59, effective July of last year. The Diocese has therefore been saved $405.76 per annum in insurance premiums paid on the Conference Center.

Electrical Inspections

In view of damaging fires which have occurred in various parts of the country, our Insurance Committee has recommended regular electrical inspections on all Diocesan owned properties. The last inspections were ordered in 1956.

With the assistance of Mr. Robert F. Bole, Financial Secretary of the Diocese, a list of properties for inspection was prepared. The list consists of 41 locations counting as one location a Church, Parish House and Rectory at the same address. There are actually 33 Church Buildings, 17 Parish Houses, 25 Rectories or Sexton's dwellings and 7 other Diocesan properties, making a total of 82 buildings.

This list was submitted by the Chairman of our Insurance Committee to the Middle Department Association of Fire Underwriters who estimated $545. for the electrical inspections of the properties involved. The matter was presented to the Department of Finance of the Diocese for action, approval was given, and the electrical inspections ordered for the current year.

Steam Boiler and Pressure Vessel Insurance

Our blanket Steam Boiler and Pressure Vessel insurance policy covers all Diocesan and Mission properties. Because the recommendations for improvements have the force of State Law, we are requesting the cooperation of the Deans of the Convocations in following up Missions who have failed to report compliance.

Fine Arts Insurance

The following Parishes and Missions have placed fine arts insurance during the year 1958.

All Saints, Darby
St. Barnabas, Germantown
St. George, West Phila.
St. Paul Memorial Church, Phila.
St. Simeon, Phila.
Trinity, Buckingham
Trinity Memorial Church, Phila.

This is an all risk policy including breakage of stained glass windows. The coverage can be obtained at only slightly more than the cost of fire insurance and extended coverage. The only requirement is that the amount of fine arts insurance be 100% of replacement cost. The building insurance is then reduced by 80% of insurable value of the stained glass windows.

Builder's Risk Insurance

The following builder's risk policies have been placed during 1958 covering new construction on properties whose title is vested in The Church Foundation.

Redeemer, Springfield, for addition to Church Building
Redemption, Southampton — construction of new Church building
St. Andrew, West Vincent — covering construction of new rectory
St. Andrew-in-the Field, Somerton — covering addition to Church Building
St. Anne, Willow Grove — construction of new Parish House Bldg.

Burglary Insurance

The Church Fire Insurance Corporation now issues a comprehensive policy insuring Church property including cash and securities against burglary, robbery, theft and larceny. The Church Foundation does not include this form of insurance on Missions. But if any Parish is interested, information and quotation of rates can be obtained from our office.

Vandalism and Malicious Mischief Endorsement

Added by Holy Comforter, Drexel Hill.

Public Liability Insurance

The following Parishes have advised that they carry their own public liability insurance now and include The Church Foundation as an additional insured:

Messiah, Phila.
St. Barnabas, Germantown
St. Philip-in-the-Field, Oreland
Trinity, Solebury

CLAIMS PAID

On properties having title vested in The Church Foundation, the following claims were paid during the year 1958.

Public Liability

St. Bartholomew, Phila., for expenses in connection with an accident to one of the parishioners sustained when she fell on the stairs — $13.

Windstorm and Lightning

St. Andrew, West Phila. Damage to windows. Occurred between March 3 to 10, 1958. Claim for $425. Paid by Church Fire Insurance Corp. on Fine Arts Policy.

Holy Sacrament, Highland Park. Damage to roof, stairwell, pews, etc. Occurred April 6, 1958. Total cost $413 with $50 deductible. Claim for $365 paid by Church Fire Insurance Corp.

St. George, Richmond, Phila. Lightning damage to tower occurred July 6, 1958. Claim for $936 paid by Church Fire Insurance Corp.

St. Andrew-in-the-Field, Somerton. Rain and windstorm damage occurred on July 11, 1958. Total cost $97 with $50 deductible — claim for $47 paid by Church Fire Insurance Corp.

Fire

The Church Fire Insurance Corporation paid $30 for the overcoat of a lay-reader which was completely destroyed by fire while he was attending a church meeting at St. Monica's, Phila. Technically our insurance company was not responsible for such a claim, but they paid it as a courtesy because the lay-reader had no personal insurance which would cover the loss.

INVESTMENT

Management

Capital Funds placed in trust with The Church Foundation are under the direction and supervision of our Investment Committee. This affords the benefit of advice from the Research Departments of several investment brokerage firms and one investment counsel firm.

The Church Foundation also has the benefit of complete banking facilities through the Provident Tradesmens Bank and Trust Company which acts as Fiscal Agent. All securities are kept in the vaults of the bank as custodian, as well as complete records of all funds in our charge. Our Fiscal Agent also prepares all checks for distribution of income to our individual funds, signed by the proper officers of the bank and The Church Foundation. For these services a reasonable administration fee is charged against the income of the various funds, as noted on pages 17 and 30.

Investment Policy

Our Investment Committee has continued its policy of obtaining the best income return for our participating funds consistent with sound investment practice. The greater proportion of our principal cash has been invested in high grade bonds during the past year, when good yields have been obtainable.

The Investment Committee has given special attention to the bond maturity schedule of our Consolidated Fund during the next five years. Our present policy is to place a greater proportion of the bonds in our portfolio in shorter term obligations, a step towards the protection of capital and to provide cash to take advantage of favorable investment opportunities as they arise.

Expendable funds such as Buildings Funds have been temporarily invested in short term obligations, specifically U. S. Treasury bills or government agencies, which are redeemable at any time.

CONSOLIDATED FUND

Each unit of the Consolidated Fund has a participating interest in a well diversified portfolio of securities in various industries consisting of bonds, preferred stocks and common stocks. This Fund is not restricted to legal investments for trust funds. The net profit on securties sold during 1958 was $38,216.50 which is not subject to the capital gains tax. Total gains on securities sold since inception of the fund amounts to $398,528.69.

During the year 1958 the unit value advanced from $15.41 to $17.67, which was the highest value yet attained. This is a reflection of the rise in common stocks to new high ground.

The income distributions per unit have advanced each year since the Consolidated Fund was established in 1943. During the year 1958, the income earned was 71.6 cents per unit. On the basis of the last unit value of $17.67 (Dec. 5th) the indicated rate of return would be 4.04%, which rate would be 5.6% if based on the average cost of $12.62 per unit.

The participating funds are grouped below in accordance with size and amounts as of December 31, 1958. The 175 trust funds had an average investment of $25,608.

The Consolidated Legal Fund was established in 1953 when the original units were priced at $10. each. It is primarily a medium for investment of trust funds which are restricted to Legal Investments. This Fund is limited by statute to one third of its market value in approved common stocks and therefore less subject to wide fluctuations. The Consolidated Legal Fund may be used advantageously by a fund whose primary purpose is conservative investment.

There are 18 participating funds in the Consolidated Legal Fund as of December 31, 1958. These funds held a total of 8,247 units representing an investment of $88,262.68, or an average cost of $11. per unit.

The participating funds are grouped below in accordance with size and amounts as of December 31, 1958.

Participating Funds	Size	Number of units	Cost
11	0 – 5,000.	1,256	$13,586.46

2	10,000 – 25,000.	4,048	44,127.09
17		8,247	$88,262.68

REPORT OF THE CATHEDRAL CHAPTER

The Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Christ in the Diocese of Pennsylvania records with deep regret the loss of its Senior Clerical member and Canon Residentiary, the Reverend Doctor James M. Niblo. Doctor Niblo served the Cathedral Foundation as a member of the Cathedral Chapter for years with distinction. Much of that which has been accomplished to date as well as for the future both in the formulation of the Cathedral ideal and the building of the present physical fabric will stand through the years as a fitting memorial to his abiding interest and unflagging effort. His enthusiasm, counsel and advice will be missed by all his colleagues. We pray for him a place of light, refreshment and peace.

During the year the new James and Martha B. Hay Memorial Chapter House was completed and accepted by the Chapter for the Cathedral Foundation. The final and total cost is in the amount of $280,579.97. This includes the necessary grading, driveways and parking area. A goodly sum (more than $90,000.00) has been reserved by the Chapter as an endowment for the maintenance of this building.

Since its acceptance, the building has not only served as the Chapter House but its complete facilities and spaciousness have provided a much needed Parish House for the Congregation of St. Mary's Chapel in the Cathedral Foundation. Certain Diocesan activities have also enjoyed the building's hospitality.

Plans have been drawn and accepted for a Canon's House for the present use by the Vicar of St. Mary's Chapel in the Cathedral Foundation. Bids have been received for this project and early construction will be had from the funds of a Bequest under the Will of Anne Tucker Earp, Deceased. The house will be, under the same Will, a "memorial of old St. Philip's Church, formerly at 8th and Vine Streets, Philadelphia."

The Bishop and Chapter are encouraged by the tangible progress made this year and last and commend an expanded Cathedral Program to all members of the Diocese.

Respectfully submitted,

WILLIAM N. LANIGAN,
Secretary-Registrar.

APPENDIX M

REPORT OF THE COMMISSION ON RECTOR'S SALARIES AND PENSIONS

The Commission wishes first, in this Annual Report for 1958, to place upon record an expression of appreciation and affection for the Reverend Dr. James M. Niblo, for 30 years a member of this Commission and for many years its Chairman, who died December 14, 1958.

In his last annual report as Chairman, just a year ago, Dr. Niblo said, "It is with a distinct sense of pride that I make my final report for the Commission on Rector's Salaries and Pensions, after being a member for 30 years and for most of the time Chairman. No one knows better the splendid service performed through the years by the members of his Commission in conducting personal interviews with Rectors and Vestries and in maintaining a helpful and sympathetic course with all who sought help."

As we all know, no member of this Commission served more devotedly in this field than Dr. Niblo, at the same time serving the Diocese most helpfully in many other fields, while carrying a heavy load of responsibilities as the Rector and Pastor of a large and very active Parish, St. John's Church, Norristown.

He finished his course with conspicuous fidelity and devotion. Well done, good and faithful servant!

During the past year the Commission assisted two Parishes: St. Bartholomew, Wissinoming; St. George's, West Philadelphia—just two remaining from as many as 40 in depression days, and House of Prayer, Branchtown, Philadelphia.

We append the usual resolution:

RESOLVED, that the Commission on Rectors' Salaries and Pensions be authorized to assess the Sustentation Fund for the year 1960, the sum of $5,000.

STANLEY R. WEST,

Chairman

APPENDIX N

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON CONSTITUTION AND CANONS

I have the privilege of reporting for the Committee on Constitution and Canons.

The Committee has made an extensive study of the Constitution, the Canons of this Diocese, the Standing Orders, and Standing Resolutions. It has the following recommendations to make:

"RESOLVED that Canon II, Section IX of the Diocese of Pennsylvania be amended so as to read as follows:

> "Clergymen canonically resident in this Diocese but not entitled to vote in the Convention, Clergymen of other Dioceses of this Church, Candidates for Holy Orders in this Church, Wardens of Missions other than those entitled to send Deputies, and all persons holding any office or trust under the Convention, including the Lay members of the Standing Committee, the officers of the Executive Council and the Executive Officer of the Episcopal Community Services, though not members, shall be admitted to seats and have a voice in the Convention, but not the right to vote.

"RESOLVED that Canon V, Section II of the Diocese of Pennsylvania be amended to read as follows:

> "Upon the death or retirement of the Bishop of the Diocese, if there be no Bishop Coadjutor to succeed him the Bishop Suffragan, if there be one, may be designated by the Standing Committee to act temporarily as the Ecclesiastical Authority.

"RESOLVED that there shall be added as Section II, 3 (a) (6) of Canon VI the following:

SECTION II, 3 (a) (6) CANON VI

> "All appeals for funds or offerings within the Diocese of Pennsylvania, requiring diocesan approval, shall be referred to the Department of Finance of the Executive Council for recommendation.

"RESOLVED that the Standing Resolution of May 1938, page 36, be incorporated into the Canons as sub-section 8 of Section V of Canon VII, reading as follows:

"Remittance of Assessments."

Not later than two months before the Meeting of each Annual Convention any Parish which has not paid and does not expect to be able to pay before that Convention its Assessments for The Episcopal and Convention Funds of the previous year, but desires to have Representation in such Convention, shall submit to the Department of Finance of The Executive Council any considerations which the Parish Authorities believe should move the Convention to grant it representation in spite of such failure; and, the said Department shall report to the Convention, for the information of the Committee on Claims of Laity to Seats, its recommendation in the premises; and, the said Committee shall not report favorably upon the Application for Restoration of the right to representation of any Parish which has not pursued the above course.

"RESOLVED that there shall be added to Canon VIII, Section III Sub-Section 1 the following sentence, to be designated as (e):

"One Warden or one officer of each Aided Parish."

"RESOLVED that Canon VIII Section V of the Canons of the Diocese of Pennsylvania shall be amended so as to read as follows:

"1. Any Parish whose Rector is not in receipt of the minimum compensation required by Resolution of the Convention, and which is also unable to comply with the requirements of the Convention for receiving aid from the Rectors' Salaries and Pension Assessment, shall, if it wishes, apply to the Bishop to be treated as an Aided Parish and receive aid from any Diocesan source, Missionary or otherwise, provided the Parish is willing to meet the requirements set forth in subsections 2-12.

"2. Such application must be accompanied by a waiver by the Vestry of their right to elect a Rector while the Parish is being treated as an Aided Parish, and by an agreement that during that period the Bishop may call upon their Rector, if there be one, or upon their Minister-in-Charge, if the Bishop appoint one, to render such service within and/or without the Aided Parish as the Bishop may from time to time direct.

"3. The application shall also be accompanied by the agreement by the Rector, if there be one, to perform such service within and/or without the Aided Parish, as the Bishop may direct, so long as the Parish is being administered as an Aided Parish.

"4. The clergy in charge of the Aided Parish shall be appointed thereto by the Bishop and may at any time be removed by him and appointed to other work.

"5. When the revenue, exclusive of all receipts from outside sources, shall amount to more than $500 per annum, the Aided Parish shall elect annually such officers as required in their Charter.

"6. The Title of all Real Estate and all Endowments and Trust Funds already held by the Parish at the time of the application to become an Aided Parish, or acquired while the Parish in functioning as such shall for the period the Parish remains an Aided Parish, be placed in the Church Foundation to be administered by them unless decided otherwise by the Bishop and Executive Council.

"7. Expenditures of any Capital Fund belonging to the Aided Parish can only be made with the full approval and consent of the Bishop and the Executive Council.

"8. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer or any other officer specified in the Charter to collect and receive all monies contributed by the Aided Parish, and to remit or disburse them in accordance with the rules of the Diocese. His accounts shall be audited annually under direction of the Executive Council of the Diocese.

"9. Subject to the approval of the Bishop, the Minister-in-Charge shall appoint the Sexton, Organist, Choir Master, Church School Superintendent, and any other helper he may find necessary.

"10. The Minister-in-Charge and/or officers of the Aided Parish shall make such report as the Dean of the Convocation in which the Aided Parish is located, and the Executive Council of the Diocese may require.

"11. No Minister-in-Charge, or any other person or persons connected with an Aided Parish, shall sign any Promissory Notes, or Contracts, or in any other way obligate the Aided Parish for a total of more than $500, without the consent of the Executive Council.

"12. All provisions of the Constitution and Canons relating to Parishes shall apply to an Aided Parish except where separate provision is made; provided that in the case of conflict the provisions of this Canon shall prevail.

"13. Except as is expressly provided in this Canon, an Aided Parish shall continue to possess and exercise all of its powers under its Charter or Articles of Association.

"14. Upon the Aided Parish having demonstrated over a period of two years to the satisfaction of the Bishop, its ability to pay the minimum salary, or its ability to meet the requirements of the Convention for obtaining aid from the Rectors' Salaries and Pension Assessment, full Parish status shall be regained, and if the Minister-in-Charge is one who was Rector when the Parish became an Aided Parish, he shall resume his tenure as Rector.

"RESOLVED that Canon X Section III Sub-Section 4 of the Canons of the Diocese of Pennsylvania shall be repealed.

"RESOLVED that the following paragraphs numbers 5, 6, 7 and 8 shall be renumbered as paragraphs 4, 5, 6 and 7.

"RESOLVED that Canon X Section III Sub-Section 6 of the Canons of the Diocese of Pennsylvania be amended to read as follows:

"Subject to the approval of the Bishop, the Minister-in-Charge shall appoint the Sexton, Organist, Choir Master, Church School Superintendent, and any other assistance he may find necessary; but if there be no Minister-in-Charge, the right of such appointment shall rest with the officers previously named, subject to the approval of the Bishop.

"RESOLVED that Canon X Section III Sub-Section 7 of the Canons of the Diocese of Pennsylvania be amended to read as follows:

"The Minister-in-Charge and/or officers of the Aided Parish shall make such report as the Dean of the Convocation in which the Aided Parish is located, and the Executive Council of the Diocese may require.

"RESOLVED that Canon XVII Section III of the Diocese of Pennsylvania be amended so as to read as follows:

"The Cathedral Church of Christ, a corporation duly organized under the laws of Pennsylvania for 'the support of Public Worship of Almighty God according to the Faith and Discipline of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America', having formally accepted this Canon and recognized the Constitution, Canons, Doctrine, Discipline and Worship of the said Church and the Constitution and Canons of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania, shall be the Cathedral Foundation for this Diocese. The title to all real estate and personal property in any way acquired for Cathedral purposes shall be held by the said corporation.

"RESOLVED that the Canons of the Diocese of Pennsylvania be amended by the elimination of Section II, sub-paragraphs 1, 2, 3 and 4 of Canon XVIII and by substituting the following:

"Section II, Episcopal Community Services of the Diocese of Pennsylvania.

1. This Convention hereby formally recognizes the corporation known as Episcopal Community Services of the Diocese of Pennsylvania as an established agency of the Diocese, and herewith provides for a closer relation between it and this body. The Bishop and Standing Committee shall annually nominate at least nine Clergymen and at least ten lay Persons, and as many more of each as the By-Laws of the said Episcopal Community Services of the Diocese of Pennsylvania shall, from time to time, provide, residents of this Diocese, to serve on the Board of Council of said corporation; which nominations shall be communicated by the Secretary of the Convention to the Board of Council Members of the said Episcopal Community Services of the Diocese of Pennsylvania for election in accordance with the charter of the said corporation.

2. The Convention commits to said Episcopal Community Services of the Diocese of Pennsylvania the religious ministration to inmates of penal institutions and patients and residents of hospitals and other institutions within the limits of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, the over-sight of the charitable enterprises developed by said corporation, and the administration of such other work as may from time to time be referred to it by this Convention.

3. Copies of the charter and By-Laws of the said Episcopal Community Services of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, together with such amendments as may from time to time be made thereto, shall be filed with the Registrar of the Diocese. The Board of Council of said corporation shall annually submit a written or printed report of its work, together with a financial statement, to the Diocesan Convention.

4. Every Rector and Minister-in-Charge of a Congregation in the Diocese shall annually, in some way, present the cause of Episcopal Community Services to his people, and bespeak their support of its work.

"RESOLVED that Canon XVIII Section III of the Canons of the Diocese of Pennsylvania be amended by repealing the last sub-paragraph of paragraph 2 thereof reading as follows:

"At their first meeting after the Annual Convention of 1944 the elected members shall divide themselves by lot into three classes, to serve until 1945, 1946 and 1947 respectively, and shall notify the Secretary of the Convention of the result for tabulation in the JOURNAL of 1944.

"RESOLVED that there shall be added as Section IV of Canon XVIII the following Canon:

SECTION IV. CANON XVIII

THE CHURCH FOUNDATION

The Church Foundation is hereby designated and appointed as the Corporation to hold and administer real and personal property in trust for the Church in the Diocese, its parishes, missions and institutions. It shall exercise complete management and control of all real and personal property held by it in trust, including the exclusive power of sale of the same; provided that no such sale shall be made and no ultimate disposition of any funds or other property held by it in trust, without the prior approval of the Ecclesiastical Authority.

"RESOLVED that a new Canon, to be known as Canon XXII, shall be adopted to read as follows:

"CANON XXII.

Trial of the Appeal of a Layman After Repulsion from the Holy Communion.

If any person repelled from the Holy Communion shall allege to the Bishop that injustice has been done, or if, notwithstanding he shall have professed himself ready and willing, in truth and sincerity, to comply with the requisitions expressed in the Rubric in order to be restored to the Holy Communion, his repulsion shall be continued, he may present his complaint in writing to the Bishop, setting forth the grounds thereof, and requesting to be restored to the Communion. Thereupon the Bishop, unless he think fit to restore the communicant from the insufficiency of the cause assigned by the minister, shall nominate two of the clergy and two of the laity, of whom the minister repelling shall select one of the clergymen, and the communicant one of the laymen. It shall be the duty of the two thus chosen to take without delay the evidence in the case, under oath and in writing, of such witnesses as may be produced by either of the parties, and to certify the same to the Bishop, who shall proceed to adjudge the case, unless for his own satisfaction, or for good cause shown by either of the parties interested, he shall desire further evidence. If further evidence be desired it shall be obtained and certified, either by the same commission, or another appointed in the manner above prescribed, as the Bishop may direct. When the evidence is thus procured the Bishop shall adjudge the case, and shall communicate his judgment to the minister repelling, and to the communicant repelled, and the judgment shall be final and conclusive. In case his judgment shall direct a further continuance of the repulsion, it shall nevertheless be subject to all the conditions and provisions of the Rubric.

"RESOLVED that the Standing Resolution of May, 1935, page 45, reading as follows, be repealed:

"Treasurer for Missionary Offerings.

"RESOLVED, That each Congregation should have two Treasurers, one the Parish Treasurer and the other the Treasurer for Missionary funds. It should be the duty of the Missionary Treasurer to encourage systematic giving to missions, and be responsible for the forwarding to the Diocesan Treasurer the money contributed for missions, monthly if possible."

"RESOLVED that Article IV, Section 3 of the Constitution which now reads as follows:

"Each Organized Mission of this Diocese, reporting not less than one hundred communicants, which has made a Parochial Report and paid its assessment for the Episcopal Fund for the preceding calendar year, may send to the Convention one Lay Deputy, chosen as may be provided for by Canon, who shall have all the rights of parochial Deputies, and in an election or when the vote is by Orders the vote cast for such mission so represented shall count as one vote in such election or vote by Orders."

be amended so as to read as follows:

"Each Organized Mission and Aided Parish of this Diocese, reporting not less than 50 communicants, which has made a Parochial Report and paid its assessment for the Episcopal Fund for the preceding calendar year, may send to the Convention one Lay Deputy, chosen as may be provided for by Canon, who shall have all the rights of parochial Deputies, and in an election or when the vote is by Orders the vote cast for such Mission, or Aided Parish, so represented shall count as one vote in such election or vote by Orders."

DIOCESAN LIBRARY REPORT

Eleven church magazines were subscribed to and put in the rack in Room 11. Fifty-nine new books were purchased, catalogued and put on the shelves. These were chosen by the members of the Board of Control from book reviews in magazines, and lists sent them by the Librarian, and from their own literary resources. Several books were donated from the Library of the Rev. Henry Paynter, D.D. An additional book case was given us from Bishop Hart's office, and which shelves the latest books.

Titles of new books, as well as other currently needed books in the Library, were listed from time to time in the Church News. The list of new books purchased and donated during the year was sent to all the clergy, laymen in charge of parishes, perpetual deacons, students, Woman's Auxiliary Committee Chairman, and other lay people using the Library.

Cards were sent to the clergy and users of the Library in May reminding them that the Library is open for their use during the summer. An article was written by Dr. Walter M. Haushalter, Chairman of the Board, and printed in the Church News to promote the use of the Library. Good size cards were printed advertising the Library for the use of clergy and laity, to be sent to all parishes and posted on their bulletin boards. There have been from seventy to a hundred books out at a time.

During the summer the books were cleaned, as usual. Thirty-two books were rebound, and the others were mended and reconditioned with Krylon. Only two sustaining membership subscriptions were received.

At a meeting of the Board of Control in May, Mr. Robert F. Bole, Diocesan Financial Secretary was elected a member of the Board and Treasurer of the Library.

Respectfully submitted,

WALTER M. HAUSHALTER, LL.D.,
Chairman, Board of Control

APPENDIX R

CORPORATION FOR EPISCOPAL WORK IN EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS WITHIN THE DIOCESE OF PENNSYLVANIA

The outstanding achievement of the Corporation for Episcopal Work in Educational Institutions Within the Diocese of Pennsylvania since last Convention has been the obtaining of the new Diocesan Director of College Work. This position was made possible by increased financial support from the Diocese and by a grant-in-aid from the National Church. The new Director, the Rev. Edwin G. Bennett, will begin his work on August 1, 1959. He is a graduate of Dartmouth College and the Virginia Theological Seminary and has done graduate work at Union Theological Seminary. The Rev. Mr. Bennett has had wide parish experience in the Dioceses of Pittsburgh, West Virginia, and New York. He has given active leadership to youth work and has been in charge of the Committee on College Work in the Diocese of West Virginia in addition to having served as Episcopal chaplain at West Virginia University.

As a result of this appointment and of extensive study, the Corporation feels that major groundwork has now been laid for significant advances in the field of college work throughout the Diocese. This work continues to become more crucial as our young people flock in greater numbers to our colleges and universities. In many ways the Corporation believes college work to be the most important missionary opportunity which our Diocese now has at hand.

Another important appointment is that of the Rev. Earl Brill who on February 1, 1959, assumed the full-time duties of Episcopal chaplain in the Christian Association of the University of Pennsylvania. The Rev. Mr. Brill succeeded the Rev. Charles K. C. Lawrence who resigned his post here last June afer six years of devoted service.

Respectfully submitted,

EDWARD G. HARRIS,
President, Corporation for Episcopal Work in Educational Institutions Within the Diocese of Pennsylvania

APPENDIX S

THE REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON PAROCHIAL HISTORY

A meeting of the Committee was held on Monday, April 13, 1959; all members being present:

The Rev. J. Wesley Twelves, D.D.
The Rev. Alfred F. Fischer
The Rev. William M. Manross
The Rev. Andrew W. Mayer
The Rev. William B. Stimson
Frank V. Burton
Joseph S. Hepburn, Ph.D., M.D.
The Rev. J. Jarden Guenther, D.D., Chairman

The Committee agreed that at this time it could render a service of continuing value by securing from every parish and mission a record of its present status. The celebration of the 175th Anniversary of our own Diocese has quickened an interest in its long and distinguished history, concerning which an informative booklet has been written by The Rev. Dr. Twelves, Chairman of the Anniversary Committee and Registrar of the Diocese.

That something must be done at this time to secure, index and preserve all historical data of the Diocese, of present and future value and interest, has become factually necessary because the irreplaceable records of The Church Historical Society — since 1940 the official agency of the General Convention — have, after many years entrusted to the care of this Diocese, been transferred to Texas because of the lack of safe and adequate storage space in this Diocese where our Church was officially organized.

The Committee will send to the rectors of parishes, and to vicars in charge of missions, a letter requesting — as of the date of our 175th Anniversary — a general statement of the parish or mission, to include the names of the clergy, vicars, Deacons and others serving in the said parishes or missions. Also, a list of all parish and mission officials: Wardens and vestrymen, treasurers, secretaries, organists and choirmasters, vergers, together with the names of officers of all other functioning organizations: Woman's auxiliary, YPF, altar guild, Brotherhood of St. Andrew chapter, etc.

There should also be a brief statement giving the date of the founding of the parish or mission, together with data as to its development to the present date.

Mere statistics are not enough: photographs of former and present rectors, vicars and other officials will be of added interest. Also, copies of leaflets, etc. containing articles of special historical importance will be of value.

It has been suggested that a "Historian" be appointed in each parish and mission to cooperate with the rector or vicar. If this is done the name and address of such person should be sent to the Committee.

Data of all kinds should be marked with the name and address of the parish or mission from which it was sent as there will be a separate filing of all material in the name of the parish or mission.

The Committee will be glad to cooperate with all parishes and missions which desire to compile a more complete history. A pamphlet, entitled "Adventures in Parish History," written by Nelson R. Burr, Librarian of Congress, may be obtained from The Church Historical Society, 606 Rathevue Place, Austin 5, Texas. Price per copy 25¢.

Respectfully submitted,

JARDEN GUENTHER, Chairman

REPORT OF GREATER PHILADELPHIA COUNCIL OF CHURCHES

I have been asked by the Reverend Charles Ehly to speak to you in the name of and on behalf of the Greater Philadelphia Council of Churches. This I do most gladly and willingly. Having served on the Executive Board of the Council of Churches, and being rector of one of the MANY parishes of our Church supporting the work of the Council, I am convinced that the many activities and services performed by the Greater Philadelphia Council of Churches constitute a ministry and service in the Name of Our Lord Jesus Christ that I could not possibly hope to accomplish alone; nor that my congregation could accomplish without participation in cooperative service and fellowship with the other 550 congregations of 24 denominations that comprise the Greater Philadelphia Council of Churches.

The Council does not promote organic union among the member Churches and Denominations. It recognizes that organic Church union is within the province of the denominations and has never been assigned as the responsibiltiy of the Council of Churches. Rather — the Greater Philadelphia Council of Churches is a means of enabling the denominations and Churches of this area to work together on whatever common needs or problems they choose — needs and problems, which, in the Name of Christ, can best be met by cooperative action and service by those Churches and Denominations which profess Him as Saviour and Lord.

This is why I am convinced that the Council helps me to extend my ministry beyond immediate parochial bounds and even beyond the bounds of activity and Christian service undertaken by this Diocese.

Because of Christian Cooperative Action — thousands of foreign students who come to the Philadelphia area have had opened to them doors of Christian homes through which they have learned what America is really like.

Because of Christan Cooperative Action — Camp Chaplains have enlisted almost 3000 Boy Scouts to work for the Religious awards which require close association between the boy and his Church and pastor.

Because of Christian Cooperative Action — Delinquents at the Youth Study Center have been ministered to by a cooperative arrangement with denominationally employed chaplains, and have been taught the faith with the aid of specially prepared curriculum.

Because of Christian Cooperative Action — leaders of children and youth by the thousands have received training and skills and methods increasing their effectiveness as teachers.

Because of Christian Cooperative Action — forgotten patients in State institutions have received thousands of Christmas stockings from women of our Christian Churches to remind them that "someone cares."

Because of Christian Cooperative Action — A Pilot Sunday School for mentally retarded children was started here in Philadelphia with trained personnel to bring the concern of Christ to children and their parents, and already has been of great help in advising similar schools that have grown from it.

Because of Christian Cooperative Action — Television and Radio Programs have brought the good news of Christ into millions of homes daily.

Because of Christian Cooperative Action — The Non-Roman Churches of our Community have had a closer contact and laison with the law enforcing agencies of this City in control of juvenile delinquency.

These are but a few of the tangible results of the Churches and Denominations working together through the Greater Philadelphia Council of Churches.

The Council also serves, not only those outside the Churches — there are also very tanglible results to the Churches themselves.

Because of this Cooperative Action Together — some 700 Ministers, secretaries, music directors, etc., through group action, have saved over $30,000 in Blue Cross-Blue Shield fees.

By working with Real Estate Developers in cooperation our member denominations have received from them over $250,000 worth of land FREE for Church sites.

Television and Radio stations have donated over $2,000,000 worth of air time to the Council because it is a Cooperative Venture.

Because the Council of Churches can assist EVERY clergyman of this Diocese in extending the influence if his ministry to a wider field of service in the Name of Our Lord, I commend most sincerely the Greater Philadelphia Council of Churches to their concern and support. Many of our priests have found its aid and assistance in their ministry.

To all others who are not yet members, I call on them to consider the many ways the Council can help them.

To the laity present who are members of the parishes and missions of this Diocese, I ask you to consider the manifold ways by which, through Christian Cooperative Action through the Greater Philadelphia Council of Churches and the concern of your congregation, the work of the Church may be effectively increased.

Respectfully submiited,

JOHN ALBERT

APPENDIX U

REPORT OF THE PHILADELPHIA DIVINITY SCHOOL

The Rev. Dr. Charles L. Taylor, former Dean of the Episcopal Theological School and present Executive Secretary of the American Association of Theological Schools, wrote a provocative article in a Church periodical not long ago on "The Choice of a Theological School."

Said Dr. Taylor, to a hypothetical student about to apply for consideration by a certain seminary, "Does the school you have in mind look inward upon the sometimes inconsequential lore of 'my (parish) Church' or 'our Church,' or will it bring you to see (your) responsibility to the whole Christian Church; to bring a whole gospel to a whole world?" This is a pertinent and troubling question.

The Philadelphia Divinity School has at various times been regarded as a "party" school and certainly we have not earned a reputation to teach our men their responsibility to the whole Church or "to bring a whole gosepl to a whole world."

No "party" classification is fair nor tenable despite impressions to the contrary. The implication that the Churchmanship of a school is determined by the dean and faculty is erroneous. The character of a small theological school such as ours is more likely to be determined by the parishes or Diocesan background of our seminarians. If the student body is largely made up of students coming from evangelical surroundings, the atmosphere of the school will be evangelical. Likewise, if the student body is largely supported by parishes and Dioceses with Anglo-Catholic leanings, the tone of the school will be Anglo-Catholic. This is especially true when a Diocesan actually instructs his candidates to avoid, where possible, certain instructors known either for their liberal tendencies or for their Anglo-Cathloic position .

In my judgment the faculty of the Philadelphia Divinity School is exceedingly well balanced. Our seminarians are being taught by graduates of Berkeley, Church Divinity School of the Pacific, Columbia, Episcopal Theological School, General Theological Seminary, Harvarad, Temple, Union and Virginia. The acting dean is proud to claim St. Mark's Church in Philadelphia as the parish of his youth and from which he studied for Holy Orders. This means our students are receiving a broad and tolerant background. Information in greater detail is avilable to those who seek it. Alas, we cannot defend the school against rumor and hearsay by unseen and unknown antagonists nor against bygone insinuations.

Now, it may come as something of a surprise, and one not readily digested, if I state that the present emphasis on Churchmanship is on the wane. No longer are outward and visible signs of Churchmanship of controlling emphasis. The emphasis today is largely theological.

The historic theological position is now questioned by contemporary theology. One finds that ceremonial practices exist within both theological ideologies. Be that as it may, it is undeniably true that a visitor to our Divinity School today will note that more than a majority of our seminarians come from so-called Anglo-Catholic parishes. The faculty rightly feel they cannot interfere with these evidences of Churchmanship unless we sense that externals seem to be regarded as more important than the inward and spiritual grace attached to the activities of the Holy Spirit of God. At times, the faculty is disturbed by a seminarian who registers his indifference to all outward signs of reverence to the point of seemingly to ignore that he is in God's Holy House.

Churchmanship is largely a matter of self expression. Some feel the need to give outward evidence of their faith. Others shrink from exposing their feelings by burying them deep in signless devotion.

There will always be division among Episcopalians in their devotional acts. The extremist, whether he be an evangelical or an Anglo-Catholic, will color the judgments of those who want to be critical or who do not understand the reasons behind devotional acts or lack of them. Only when we reach a point of recognizing there are varying ways of evidencing reverence, will we de-emphasize Churchmanship to concentrate upon the vitality of Christ within us and in our understanding.

A Divinity School is an experimental field. Great emphasis is laid indirectly and directly upon proper practices, the observation of Prayerbook rubrics and the conduct of public worship. This is inevitable in a community such as a Divinity School.

Actually, our Chapel Services are conducted with simplciity. We never depart from the Book of Common Prayer. The surplice and stole are used for all Communion Services except on Holy Days. On these occasions, eucharistic vestments are worn. They are also worn on Tuesday mornings for a sung Communion Service. Morning and Evening Prayer are conducted in surplice and scarf. Ceremonial per se was criticized by our Lord. He wasn't interested in ceremonial, He was only interested in a man's way of life. Furthermore, being tolerant Himself, He was intolerant of intolerance.

Today our seminaries face problems of vastly graver concern than "High Church" or "Low Church" practices. Communism abroad and apathy at home connive to present a closely knit anti-Christian front. Christianity is harassed by its tragic divisions. We are our own worst enemies.

We are in a vast sociological evolution within our American way of life. I am proud to state that for better than two-thirds of the history of the Philadelphia Divinity School integration has been part of our way of life. Please God, we will not permit far greater considerations than evidences of Churchmanship to mangle our perspective or our responsibility to the Church of the future.

Other Episcopal theological schools have made greater progress than have we towards sensing fraternity with those of other denominations. Next autumn, the Philadelphia Divinity School is sending a faculty member and two student representatives to the Lutheran Theological Seminary to meet with faculty and student representatives of other denominations to consider what we have in common. This is our first step towards a greater understanding of ecumenicity. Furthermore, the faculty at the Philadelphia Divinity School are members of an interdenominational, interseminary association and our students always send representatives to annual meetings of ecumenical, interseminary gatherings.

We Anglicans possess the genius associated with our Book of Common Prayer, our sacraments and our historic foundation but we will fail our inheritance unless we are willing to share with others the broad scope of our Via Media position. We cannot remain aloof, even as we protect our inheritance. We must learn to share it with others even as we must learn what others consider as treasures and wish to share them with us.

We have not forgotten the tragedy associated with the Wesleyan movement in the Church of England. God forbid that we should be guilty of driving away those with broad and tolerant conceptions by austerity, superiority or stupidity. We cannot stand still. We must either be divisive or unitive. God forbid that we should harbor prejudices.

I have tried to interpret our position at the Philadelphia Divinity School. We want your respect and cooperation. We recognize we must earn both. We of the faculty are united in our objectives but we realize we must earn your trust in the development of our aims, in the quality of our students, in the uniformity of our efforts and in our dedication.

That is our answer to Dr. Taylor's query.

Respectfully submitted,

ALBERT LUCAS, Acting Dean
